THE LOYOLA BRIEF

EDITOR:
WAYNE LEMIEUX

VOL. II, NO. 1.
November 6, 1967

ASSOCIATE EDITORS:
BOB LANE, MAURICE MEYERS

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE:

A good newspaper is like a good woman: hard to find but once you have found her size doesn't really matter. As editors of the LOYOLA BRIEF we will try to make you forget her size.

In addition to the familiar list of school events, in this bimonthly will appear a series of articles penned by distinguished L.A. attorneys. These gentlemen will comment on the major legal problems of our times.

SPEAKERS ANNOUNCED:

PIERRE SALINGER has been scheduled as a speaker at Loyola for Nov. 8. Mike RICHMAN reports that coming up two top prosecuting attorneys from the L.A. District Attorney's office: J. MILLER LEVY & JOE BUSCH will speak to the student body.

STUDENT PROJECT:

Several members of the student body are presently planning a program of lectures for high school students on the subject of what they can expect from the law. The purpose of this program is to show the teen-ager that the law is beneficial and not just oppressive.

The project is just beginning. Loyola students who would like to be included in this worthwhile program should contact either WAYNE LEMIEUX or JIM BYRNE.

SENIOR PLACEMENT BROCHURE:

After the Seniors complete the photographing process they will be asked to fill out resumes. JOHN VACCA announced that these resumes must be returned by Nov. 8.

STUDENT WRITERS WANTED:

The BRIEF is looking for staff members. All students (or faculty) are invited to submit articles either on a full time or ad hoc basis. Contact one of the editors.

COMMITTEEMEN SOUGHT:

Unfettered communication between faculty and student is recognized as a key to effective education. At Loyola the main artery of this exchange is the student committee system. Presently, several important committees are looking for members. It would seem that, unless we, as students, are willing to participate in these groups, there can be no justification for complaining about administrative deficiencies.

The following is a list of permanent committees and their chairmen: Orientation (TROOP-N, JOCONI-D); Moot Court (SHAPIRO); Spring Dance & Libel Show; Public Relations (CASSIDY); Student Faculty Relations (KEEFE); Grades and Disqualifications (SCHMITZ).

Those interested in participating in any of these committees should contact either the chairman or TERRY FIELDS.

BAR GOVERNORS:

The Loyola Bar Governors has scheduled a meeting for Nov. 7. All students may attend. Watch the BRIEF for announcements of meetings where controversial matters will be discussed.

LOYOLA BRIEF DEADLINE:

All Law school organizations are encouraged to announce their groups' events in the BRIEF. However, leadtime requirements dictate that a Nov. 9 deadline be met for the Nov. 20 edition of the BRIEF.
