ALUMNI NEWSLETTER

LOYOLA LAW SCHOOL

AUGUST, 1996

OF "SPECIAL INTEREST"..

Special interest alumni groups are beginning to form in a variety of areas. Groups may be based on area of practice or interest, geographic location, ethnicity, previous affiliation with a student organization, etc. All alums are invited to participate in any one, or any number, of these "affinity groups" that might be of interest. All of the groups will provide networking among alumni and opportunities to interact with and support current students.

Asian Pacific Islander Alumni

A planning meeting to formulate this group is scheduled for Thursday, September 12 at 6 pm in Room C004 of the Casassa Building on the Law School campus. All interested Loyola alums are invited to attend. The purpose of this meeting is to determine direction and goals for the group - and do a little socializing!

Please contact Ken Fong '89 at 213/889-6600 or Anne Inoue '89 at 310/477-9282 for further information.

N. California Bay Area Alumni

Alums in the greater San Francisco area are getting together on the first Thursday of every month to stay in touch. Anyone living, working or just visiting in the area is invited to join the group - check newsletter Calendar for exact date, time and location each month.

First Thursday in San Francisco
Sept. 5 from 5:30 to 8 pm
at Gordon Biersch
2 Harrison Street @ Embarcadero

Orange County Alumni

Orange County alums are in the process of planning a dinner in November to honor Loyola alumni judges seated in Orange County. The Committee can use the help of any interested alums. Please contact the Alumni Office, Karen Parks at 213/736-1046 if you would like

ALUMNI OFFICE ON THE MOVE

Although we encourage alumni to return to the Law School whenever possible, we know how difficult it is to get here. So, we're going on the road to visit as many alums as possible around the country. We would like to get to know you and help you get acquainted with, or re-acquainted with, other Loyola alums in your area.

Over the next few months, we will be visiting the cities noted below. If you are in or near any of these cities, please make note on your calendar now and save the date for us. We also welcome your input. If you would like to help plan an event in your area, or just give us some advice on the subject, please call the Alumni Relations Office, Karen Parks at 1-800-796-1529.

What's New

Correction: In the June, 1996 edition of the Alumni Newsletter, it was erroneously reported that John J. Collins '61 was elected to the California State Bar Board of Governors. The correct information is that Collins was endorsed by the Los Angeles lawyers' Breakfast Club in his bid for election to that body. We apologize to him and the other candidates for any embarrassment or confusion this error may have caused.

1966 Alice Merenbach, having closed her practice in Santa Barbara and moved inland to Bakersfield, has fulfilled her goal of visiting all seven continents. Bill Ofner recently spent his vacation in Paris and painted several watercolors.

1967 Janet L. Chubb has been elected Vice President of the American Bankruptcy Board of Certification and chairs, the State Bar Liaison Committee of that organization. Peter J. Sullivan of Santa Monica has retired from his practice in real estate litigation and loan fraud.

1968 Dale S. Gribow recently spoke to the Palm Desert Rotary Club on "How to Not Be a Victim," and was presented with its "Guest Speaker Award for 1996." Gribow has also joined the National Network of Estate Planning Attorneys.

1971 Nancy G. Cattell has retired from Santa Monica College after 31 years, but continues her tenure as a Trustee of that College. She is now practicing law as an estate planner and traveling. She was on her way "out the door" to Africa when we spoke. Gov. Bob Miller of Nevada was named chairman of the National Governors' Association. Elizabeth Yahn Williams was the host and producer of a two-part informational/educational television series on KOCT (Channel 17) entitled, "Guidelights to Success." The series was awarded status as a 1996 Telly Finalist. Williams also was the unnamed set-designer, script writer, director, editor and theme song lyricist for the series.

1972 Tony Blankley, press secretary for House Speaker Newt Gingrich, was profiled in June of in the Life and Style section of the Los Angeles Times.

1973 Theodore S. Goodwin has re-opened his law office in Sacramento, which emphasizes environmental litigation. Joel Kaufman's daughter Jody is will begin her first year at Loyola this month.

1974 David W. Levene has formed the law offices of Levene, Neale & Bender in Century City. Max De Lema, a private practitioner living in Mission Viejo, is a candidate for the South County Municipal Court. Maureen Duffy-Lewis is an unopposed candidate for election to the Los Angeles Superior Court.

1975 Ruth A. Phelps recently became certified by the National Elder Law Foundation as an Elder Law Attorney, part of the first such group to be certified. Raymond L. Stuehrmann, formerly general counsel American Pacific State Bank and manager of the legal department of Manufacturer's Bank, has started his own practice in Westlake Village/Thousand Oaks, specializing in commercial and banking law.

1977 Richard Malamud, a professor in the Department of Accounting and Law at the California State University Dominguez Hills School of Management, had his article, "Allocation of the Joint Return Marriage Penalty and Bonus" published in the Winter, 1996 Virginia Tax Review and another article, "Nanny Tax: Not a Practical Solution" published in the March 4, 1996 Tax Notes as a special report. Malamud teaches federal.

1978 Barbara Kogen has been admitted as a partner to the firm of Nanas, Stern, Biers, Neinstein and Co. Michael F. Newman, who has two adopted children of his own, has expanded his probate and estate planning practice to the area of adoption law.

1979 Jack Coe, Pepperdine University School of Law faculty member, has completed a book entitled, International Commercial Arbitration -- American Principles and Practice in a Global Context. Coe also co-authored the third edition of Protecting Against the Expropriation Risk in Investing Abroad. Marilyn Jenkins Milner is General Counsel of Ultramar Canada, a wholly owned subsidiary of Ultramar Corporation, which owns and operates a refinery, service stations and a home-heating oil division. Michael B. Rainey, currently in practice in Woodland Hills, was invited to join J.A.M.S. as a mediator. Rainey also teaches business law in the M.B.A. program at Pepperdine. Fred T. Winters is practicing real estate and bankruptcy law at Berger, Kahn, Shaffon, Moss, Figler, Simon & Gladstone in Irvine. Winters was also appointed to the Board of Directors of the British American Chamber of Commerce in Orange County.

LAW SCHOOL MOURNS LOSS OF TWO STUDENTS

The Loyola Law School community grieves over the recent deaths of two of our law students. Members of the evening division, both students were scheduled to graduate this coming spring and had promising futures as members of the Bar.

George Bay '97, CPA, 47, died on July 24, 1996 of heart failure. Bay was the founding partner of George S. Bay & Co., one of the largest CPA firms in the Korean community in Los Angeles. Prior to private practice, Bay was a staff accountant with Arthur Anderson & Co. An active member of the Korean community, Bay earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Electronics from Seoul National University, and a Master in Science in Accounting from California State University, Los Angeles. Bay is survived by his wife and three children.

Brent Richey '97, 26, and his fiancée Seana Anderson, were among the 14 Southern Californians who perished on TWA Flight 800 on July 17, 1996. The couple were on their way to Italy to be married and to honeymoon. An outstanding law student, Richey earned his Bachelor of Science Degree in Political Science from Utah University.
