

AJCU Library Deans and Directors Conference
Loyola Marymount University
March 18-20, 2018

Sunday, March 18, 2018

- 3 p.m. ~ Check in time at Hilton Garden Inn, Marina del Rey. 10-minute cab or Uber ride north from Los Angeles International Airport (LAX)
- 5:00-7:00 p.m. – Reception in the Admiralty Room, Hilton Garden Inn

Monday, March 19, 2018

All events Von der Ahe Family Suite, Level 3, William H. Hannon Library unless specified

- 8:00 a.m. – Shuttle from the hotel to the William H. Hannon Library @ LMU
- 8:30 a.m. ~ Continental Breakfast
- 9:00 a.m. ~ Welcome/Opening Remarks by Loyola Marymount University Provost, Thomas Poon
- 9:30 -10:30 – Presentation 1: “Aligning Our Books to Our Patrons” – Rice Majors, Santa Clara University, Glenn Johnson-Grau, Loyola Marymount University, and Erika Johnson, University of San Francisco. Report on a joint collection development project with three AJCU libraries.

Rice Majors is the Associate University Librarian for Collections & Scholarly Communication at Santa Clara University. In that role, he does research on the collection performance and especially the performance of print monographs, looking at the comparative performance of print monographs in different academic disciplines and with different collection development strategies at different academic institutions. He has also published on the comparative user experiences of catalog discovery layers.

Glenn Johnson-Grau is Head of Acquisitions & Collection Development at Loyola Marymount University where he manages library acquisitions for books, periodicals, media, and electronic resources. His interests include consortial collaboration on print and electronic collection development and shared print retention projects, as well as the impact of campus politics on academic library activities.

- 10:30-10:45 – Break
- 10:45-11:15 – Presentation 2: “Service Learning, Information Literacy, and Libraries,” ACRL/IS Ilene F. Rockman Publication of the Year Award winner, Jennifer Nutefall, Santa Clara University
- 11:15-11:45 ~ Panel Presentation 1: Grab Bag Topics (1/2)
 - Detroit Area Library Network (DALNET) D-space group, University of Detroit Mercy, Jennifer Dean

- Institute for Research Design in Librarianship (IRDL), Loyola Marymount University, Kristine Brancolini, Loyola Marymount University
- 12:00-1:00 – Lunch
- 1:00-1:30 – Panel Presentation 2: Faculty Learning Communities and the Library
 Doing Digital @XU, Xavier, Kenneth Gibson; SWiRL (Student Research and Writing Learning), Santa Clara, Jennifer Nutefall
- 1:30-2:15 – Panel Presentation 3: New Spaces in AJCU Libraries
 Visual Resources, Holy Cross, Mark Shelton; Makerspace, Loyola Notre Dame, Barbara Preece; Renovation of Classroom, St. Joseph’s, Anne Krakow
- 2:15-3:00 – Panel Presentation 4: Video Streaming and the Future of Video
 Campus servers: Fordham, Linda Loschiavo; Loyola Notre Dame, Barbara Preece
 Bigger questions about problems of paying for services like Kanopy. How long will we be buying DVDs? Has anyone already stopped?
- 3:00-3:15 ~ Break
- 3:15-4:15 – Panel Presentation 5: New Jobs for Librarians – New or repurposed? Shared with other units? Which departments are losing positions?
 Visual Literacy, Holy Cross, Mark Shelton; First Year Engagement, Gonzaga, Paul Bracke; Digital Humanities, Gonzaga; Civic Engagement Librarian, Loyola of Chicago, Marianne Ryan
- 4:15 ~ Return to Hotel
- 5:30 – Shuttle to Saponi Italian Restaurant, Marina del Rey
- 6:00-8:00 ~ Dinner
- 8:00 p.m. ~ Shuttle back to Hotel

Tuesday, March 20, 2018

All events Von der Ahe Family Suite, Level 3, William H. Hannon Library unless specified

- 8:30 a.m. ~ Shuttle from hotel to the library
- 9:00 a.m. ~ Continental Breakfast
- 9:30 a.m. ~ Keynote: Miriam Posner, Assistant Professor, Information Science, UCLA
 “State of the Art: Digital Humanities & Libraries, Right Now”

Miriam Posner is an assistant professor at the UCLA School of Information. She's also a digital humanist with interests in labor, race, feminism, and the history and philosophy of data. As a digital humanist, she is particularly interested in the visualization of large bodies of data from cultural heritage institutions, and the application of digital methods to the analysis of images and video. A film, media, and American studies scholar by training, she frequently writes on the application of digital methods to the humanities. She is at work on two projects: the first on what "data" might mean for humanistic research; and the second on how multinational corporations are making use of data in their supply chains.

- 10:45-11:00 ~ Break
- 11:15 - 12:15 ~ Panel Presentation 6: Digital Scholarship/Humanities Collaborations in AJCU Libraries

Linda Loschiavo, Fordham; Paul Bracke, Gonzaga; Scott Mandernack, Marquette; Marianne Ryan, Loyola of Chicago

- 12:30-1:30 ~ Lunch
- 1:30-2:30 ~ Panel Presentation 7: Grab Bag Topics (2/2)
 - Organizational changes: Library/IT Merger at Creighton, Jim Bothmer
 - Digital scholarship training for liaison librarians: Marquette, Scott Mandernack
 - Open educational resource for librarians and faculty: CORA: Community of Online Research Assignment: Loyola Marymount University, Susan Gardner Archambault
- 2:45-3:45 ~ Business Meeting

AGENDA

- Approve minutes from the 2017 meeting (Distributed 3/15/18)
 - Report from the Chat Reference Committee by Alexander Justice, LMU
 - Report on CRRA from Mark Shelton, Holy Cross
 - Composition of distribution list
 - ILSs: Where are we, and is there any interest in a consortium?
 - Questions for the group about 2019 AJCU meeting in Detroit - Jennifer Dean
USF is set to host in 2020. Is anyone thinking of hosting in 2021?
- 4:00 - 5:15 Tour of the library, including visit to Archives & Special Collections with a display of some of our "treasures." At 5:15 we will walk to University Hall for dinner. Those who prefer to ride will have that option!
 - 5:30 ~ Hors d'oeuvres on the bridge outside the McIntosh Room (#3999), University Hall
 - 6:00 - Dinner in the McIntosh Room

- 7:30 ~ Shuttle back to the hotel

Wednesday, March 21

Check out of Hilton Garden Inn by noon.

Optional excursion to The Huntington Library

It's supposed to rain on Wednesday so an umbrella is more than a suggestion!

- 8:30 am - Leave the Hilton Garden Inn to be sure we are there 10:00. Some people from the library are driving and will meet us there. Our party will total 10.
- 10:00-11:00 am - Docent led Estate tour
- 11:15-12:00 ~ Lunch in Café 1919-You select your food, wait for the group to be ready, and then I pay for everybody at once
- 12:00-12:55 ~ free time
- 12:55 ~ Meet at the entrance to the Munger Research Center for our Library tour
- 1:00-2:00 pm ~ Guided private library tour
- 2:00-3:00pm ~ Free time
- 3:00pm ~ Group transportation departs for Hilton Garden Inn

Tips:

- Visit the website before you go <http://huntington.org/>.
- Wear comfortable shoes for walking outside.
- You may want to bring sunglasses, sunscreen, a hat, an umbrella.
- The gift shop is awesome.

Please let me know if you have any questions.