A REFERENDUM will be held on the petition presented at the end of the Spring Semester to revoke last years SBA's authority to give a $500 award to an outstanding instructor. The polls will be located in the coffee shop and will be open from 5:00 p.m. til 9:30 p.m., Tuesday and Wednesday, June 24 and 25th. This is your chance to be heard on this controversial issue.

THE FILM "ANATOMY OF A MURDER" with James Stewart and George C. Scott will be shown in the Moot Court, Tuesday, June 24, 8:00 p.m. Admission is free. Presented by the Loyola Film Society and the S.B.A. (evening).

A COMMITTEE FOR ORIENTATION OF NEW STUDENTS is being formed by the second year class reps. If you would like to assist in this orientation, contact either Tom Peterson or Diana More through the S.B.A. mailboxes.

MAILBOXES are located immediately inside the coffee shop door. These may be used to communicate with class reps and other S.B.A. officers.

SPRING GRADES were supposed to be turned in by June 10th but according to the registrar's office on June 17th, 20 professors had still not turned in their grades. This is holding up the grades for 32 sections. The problem is aggravated for first year students because of normalization. Some sections of first year grades have been completed but they cannot be finalized until the other sections of the same course are turned in.

FALL REGISTRATION will be on a random basis within class. That is all 4th year night students will register first, but the order of registration within that class will be on a predetermined random basis. Detailed registration instructions will be mailed out by July 25th. Registration will take place August 13th - 15th. Registration will be in person or by an agent. There will be no mail registration.

FALL AND SPRING SCHEDULES are expected to be available by July 10th. Examination schedules will be announced at the time the schedules are released. Also, there will be a study week without classes between the end of classes in the spring semester and final exams.

A USED BOOK EXCHANGE is planned by the PAD legal fraternity during the first week of the fall semester.

A STUDENT DIRECTORY is being planned by the SBA to be available in September.

THE COFFEE SHOP hours have been extended to 8:10 at the request of the SBA to allow those getting out of class at 8:00 p.m. to get a cup of coffee.

THIS NEWSLETTER is being published by the SBA to help inform students of what is going on at Loyola. If you would like to contribute news for the next issue, contact me, or your class representatives.
