PHI ALPHA DELTA KEEPS ACTIVE

Ford Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity is presently enjoying a most successful year. The Chapter currently has a pledge class of 74 first and second year students constituting the largest pledge class in the Chapter's history. In addition, the Chapter has 56 active members.

This year's successful pledging is largely attributable to the fraternity's professional and social activities which have thus far highlighted the '66-67 term at Loyola Law School.

Ford Chapter's professional activities have included: P.A.D. Judges' Night which provided the student with an opportunity to talk with numerous P.A.D. alumni who hold judiciary positions in California; Luncheon with Mr. Sam Dana, President of the Los Angeles Chapter of the American Trial Lawyers Association; Tour of the Sheriff's Crime Laboratory; and a Tour of the new Los Angeles County Jail.

On the social side of the calendar, the fraternity has held three pledge parties where the brothers and pledges enjoyed the music of a live band and cocktails; a theater party, a football game; and a "Night at Harold's Club." Pictures of the latter event are presently on the P.A.D. Bulletin Board.

Spring activities will include theater parties, pledge activation, sports, the annual Spring Dinner-Dance and the District Conclave of the Fraternity which is being sponsored by Ford Chapter this year.

STUDENT BAR BOARD REPORTS

The Loyola Law School Student Bar Board of Governors met on Saturday, February 4th to review and discuss matters of interest and concern to all students.

Among the many topics of discussion were the following:

1. DANCE AND LIBEL SHOW.

The event will take place on Saturday, April 8, at the LaCanada Country Club. This year the show will be limited to 10 minutes to each class. (A total of 1 hour and 10 mins.) Scripts (after preliminary rehearsals) will be submitted to the Board not later than the third week in March.

2. LAW DAY.

Mrs. Yerkes, General Roberts, and Mr. Garbesi form the faculty committee. Bob Leck heads the student committee.

3. HONOR SYSTEM.

The Executive Committee of the Board passed the following resolution concerning a Code of Ethics. "A Honor Code should be written, and an ad hoc committee should be formed consisting of members of the student body at large and of some of the class representatives.

4. P.H.T. DEGREES.

Otherwise known as "Putting Hubby Through." Deadline for sign-up for these degrees is February 28.

5. MISCELLANEOUS TOPICS.

The Board also reviewed a number of other current issues, including: MOOT COURT, FORTHCOMING ELECTIONS, SENIOR ACTIVITIES, CURRICULUM COMMITTEE, and the LIBRARY. The above will be later detailed in forthcoming issues of the LOYOLA BRIEF.

Your class representatives will be happy to discuss the above in depth with interested students.

WORLD AUTHORITY TO SPEAK AT NOON FORUM

Professor Julius Stone, Challis Professor of International Law and Jurisprudence at the University of Sidney, Australia, and currently "Distinguished Visiting Professor at the University of Washington Law School, Seattle, will be speaking at the Noon Forum, February 21st in Loyola's Moot Court Auditorium, on "Secularism and Religious Tradition in Legal Development: The Case of Modern Israel." Although the title may seem limited to the experience of one country and one religion in point of fact, Professor Stone takes up the whole issue of Church and State in the modern world.

Professor Julius Stone is a world authority on international law and legal philosophy. He has written numerous books of outstanding merit and has won a great many prizes, awards, and honors in England, the United States, Australia, India, and, indeed throughout the world. He has held the Bemis Professorship of International Law at Harvard University Law School (on a visiting basis) and has been a visiting professor at Yale Law School.

Professor Stone is recognized as a wonderful teacher and public speaker, and the Noon Forum looks forward to his appearance on the 21st.
