7:00 p.m. Keynote address, by Colin Gardner
Reception to follow

Jean-François Podevin is a conceptual artist who grew up in France and now lives in California. His fascination with time, memory and the human psyche can be viewed at www.jpodevin.com. Podevin's work spans over 25 years and includes clients such as Time Magazine, Washington Post, New York Times, Coca Cola, Geffen Records, and Scientific American.

Colin Gardner, Professor of Critical Theory and Integrative Studies at U.C. Santa Barbara, positions Composite Memories historically and theoretically with linguist Ferdinand de Saussure, philosopher Henri Bergson, psychoanalyst Sigmund Freud, and novelist Marcel Proust. Professor Gardner will examine how the exhibit can be appreciated on many levels – natural, psychological, cognitive, social, mechanical, linguistic, philosophical, and structural.
