LOYOLA %$#&*?" SHOW

BOARD OF BAR GOVERNORS

A WORD FROM THE

AND SPRING DANCE

SETS ELECTION DATES

PRESIDENT

The second annual libel show and spring dance is going to be held at the beautiful LaCanada Country Club on Saturday evening, April 8.

Fantastic libations, 3 for $2.50 or .85 each will be served. You will be able to purchase drink tickets from your class representatives during the week before the dance, according to Lance Otis, committee chairman.

Directions to the dance will be passed out during that week also.

Be sure to save APRIL 8 to see your favorite professor as he is %$#&*?" and then some, and to have a great time before the long pull into final exams.

MOOT COURT COMPETITION

SCHEDULE CHANGES

Because of conflicts in the scheduling, the Scott Moot Court Competitions have been changed to March 18 for the preliminaries, and to March 22 for the Finals.

The final date for turning in the briefs to Larry Fields, the 2nd year day class representative, is March 12. Any persons not signed up should contact either Terry Fields or Larry Harvey (714 675-2761).

Students are urged to attend the competitions as they will find them to be interesting as well as educationally beneficial.

LAW WIVES SCHEDULE "MOD" PARTY

See Coffee Shop Bulletin Board for all the details.

The Election Committee has designated Wednesday and Thursday, April 19 and 20, as the dates for the election of the 1967-1968 Board of Bar Governors officers and class representatives.

The offices of president and vice-president are open to any student in good standing who will be graduated at the end of his term of office. Any student in good standing who has completed one year of studies at the time of the election is eligible to run for the offices of secretary and treasurer.

Nominating petitions for election to all offices may be procured at the Board of Bar Governors office or from any class representative.

These petitions, including the signatures of 15 members of the student body, must be returned to the Bar office by April 9. The roster of nominees for election will be posted on April 12, one week prior to elections.

Campaign literature for each candidate is limited to one poster, no larger than 8½" x 11", which may be displayed on the bulletin board in the coffee shop. No campaigning will be allowed in the southern half of the coffee shop during the elections as the polling booth will be set up in that area.

The Board of Bar Governors has become a vital link in communication between the students and administration. All who are interested are encouraged to participate actively in the coming election.

As we reach the midway point of the Spring Semester of the 1966-1967 year, the Student Bar Association anxiously awaits the fruition of the many activities which fall within their jurisdiction.

The first student prepared and published Law Review will go to press on April 1, 1967. This effort alone, has required dedication to detail by many people. The editing, writing and business coordination has culminated the efforts of many of your fellow students. The forthcoming edition of the Loyola Digest is the law review publication which has been looked forward to by many of your fellow students and their predecessors.

The Annual Spring Dance and Libel Show will bring the school's social activities to a happy conclusion for the year.

But perhaps the most important event of all to the students enrolled at Loyola Law School will be the forthcoming student body elections. This election should be participated in by every student. Your interest in, and responsibility to your school and to your fellow students is displayed first in your selection and election of your officers. It is then, through these duly elected officials, that your voices will be heard by those whom you address.
