BOARD OF BAR GOVERNORS MARCH MEETING REPORT

The Board of Governors welcomed a new member at the March 23rd meeting - Bill Bennett, first year class representative who replaced Dave Williams.

Dave Finkle reported that the LOYOLA DIGEST will be on campus by May 1. The DIGEST, containing two lead articles by attorneys, comments and case notes, will have a law review format.

Dave Callahan, second year day student, was elected by student vote to the Academic Council, an advisory board to the University. He will be the liason for graduate students and will introduce to the Council problems originating on the law school campus.

As a result of the presentation of the Ad Hoc Committee on Readmissions, two permanent faculty committees have been formed to study grievances and the grading system. Board committees will work in conjunction with the faculty committees. The brief which the Readmissions Committee presented to the faculty stressed three points: (1) Two semesters under 75 rule does not serve its intended purpose (2) Its unjust application (3) Suggested modifications.

The Board voted to show its appreciation by presenting plaques to Mike Leventhal for his creation of the LOYOLA BRIEF, and Dannie Spence for his representation in ALSA as National Circuit Vice President.
