Alumni Authors: Lisa See & Graciela Limón

March is Women's History Month, and we're delighted to host two incredibly talented literary ladies this month as a part of our Centennial Alumni Authors series.

Lisa See '79 / Wednesday, March 7

Co-sponsored by the Young Presidential Associates

Graciela Limón '65 / Wednesday, March 28

Co-sponsored by Chicana/o Studies and Sigma Lambda Gamma

Both events:

6 - 7:30 p.m.

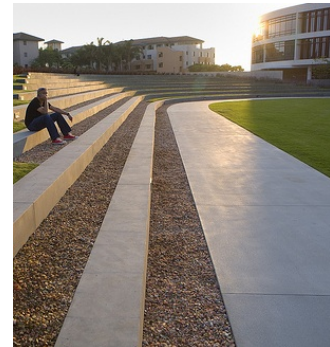

Von der Ahe Family Suite (Library Level 3)

Although all Alumni Authors events are free and open to the public, we do ask for the courtesy of an RSVP.

Snacks and refreshments will be served, and copies of the authors' bestsellers will be available for sale and signing.

Veil(s): An Extraordinary Photographic Experience

The William H. Hannon Library is honored to host the only West Coast venue for this beautiful, challenging photographic exhibit exploring perceptions of the veil from the 19th century to the present, and chronicling veiled women from all walks of life: Christian, Muslim, and Jewish. Veil(s) is on display in the library's level 3 atrium through March 25.

Veil(s) is a project of Lebanese American University's (LAU) Institute for Women's Studies in the Arab World. The exhibit is presented by the Southern California Alumni/ae Chapter of LAU in partnership with the LMU Department of Women's Studies and the William H. Hannon Library.

Undergraduate Library Research Award

This spring we are delighted to host the sixth annual Undergraduate Library Research Award. The purpose of this award is to recognize and reward LMU undergraduate students whose research makes expert and creative use of the services, resources, and collections of the William H. Hannon Library to produce a scholarly or creative work. Original research projects or creative works created between January 2011 and the application deadline are eligible.

For 2012, a prize of $1,000 will be awarded to the first place undergraduate project, and $450 each to two honorable mentions.

The deadline for faculty nominations and applications is April 6. Click here to learn more about the award, and to see past winners' work.

Image of the Month: Study Break

This month's image comes from Steven Wall '13, who posted it on Twitter. We stumbled across it because it was tagged at the library, and liked it so much that we asked Steven for permission to share it here.
