STUDENT BAR ASS'N DENIES BLACK STUDENTS' REQUEST FOR $1200

After a 10-10 tie vote of the Board of the Student Bar Association, SBA President Mason Rose broke the tie by voting "no" on a request by the Black American Law Students' Association for $1200 to publish a pamphlet on landlord-tenant law for distribution in poverty areas. The action was taken at the SBA meeting of February 18.

Originally, the sum of $2000 was requested from the SBA treasury by BALSAs. This request was broken down into two motions. First, it was moved that the SBA support the publication of such a pamphlet. This motion passed. It was then moved that the sum of $1200 be made available in two installments of $800 and $400 respectively. It was on this key question that the "no" vote was recorded.

Those representatives who voted in favor of giving BALSAs the student funds were: Jones, Tennell, Hervey, Francis, Thornton, Loveman, Drabkin, and Fagin plus two officers, treasurer Jim Steubenbenberg and vice-president Bill Powers. Those who voted against the motion were Foulke, Lodner, Ryan, Freeburg, Beaver, Jacobson, DiChiaro, Deitch, and two officers, secretary Cindy Maduro and vice-president Judy Bavetta.

Before the meeting was adjourned it was decided to hold a marathon session on Sunday, March 1, to clear the SBA agenda.
