SCHOLARSHIPS AND COMPETITIONS are being announced regularly on a new bulletin board in Campus Cuisine. Recently posted... the 1984 Federation of Insurance Counsel Foundation Essay Contest. Watch the board... new announcements come in frequently.

LEGAL ETHICS STILL AHEAD? Day students should be aware that this Spring the course will only be offered in the evening. If you want a daytime class, make your position known. Fill out the form available on the SBA office door. SBA officers will convey the survey results to the administration.

MORE THAN 60 VOLUNTEERS GAVE BLOOD last week. A huge thanks to all for taking us over our goal of 56 from the SBA.

EVENING STUDENTS... Student surveys are in... about half of all the evening students responded. Thanks for your help but we still need more 3rd and 4th year input. Forms are still available on the SBA door. Results will be announced in upcoming Loyola Reporter.

ALL STUDENT CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS... please return your evening SBA questionnaire. They were distributed to your mailboxes. These are needed before the budget is determined. Return through inter-campus mail.

BUSINESS LAW AND LITIGATION SOCIETY is holding an election for a new vice-president, public relations. If you are a first year student interested in participating, drop a note in our mailbox or stop by the office.

ENERGY CRISIS IN FINANCIAL AID OFFICE (Yes, we have been attending the Stress Reduction Seminars)... the week of the 26th will be partially devoted to two major reports, the federal application for funds, which is the basis for Loyola's request for National Direct Student Loans & College Work-Study, and the annual American Bar Association report. These two reports are mentioned because they will absorb considerable Financial Aid staff energy at the time when students will be seeking information about the status of their files and filling out the paperwork for NDSL checks. We ask for your patience and cooperation.

FIRST BATCH of award letters for NDSL's, Special Scholarship, and Equity Grants are scheduled to go out by the end of week of the 19th. NDSL checks are expected the week of the 26th. Notification of NDSL checks arrival will be executed via the Financial Aid Bulletin Board just outside the Financial Aid Office. Students are reminded that all papers connected to the award letter must be submitted complete to the Financial Aid Office before an NDSL check is disbursed. There is NDSL money left for those who applied late or for those whose files were evaluated late, so students who do not receive an award letter for NDSL during the week of September 19th should not panic. The Financial Aid Office will continue to evaluate applications until all student files are reviewed and all students are notified. As always, notice of GSL, FISL, & LSAAP loan submissions to lenders will be posted on the Financial Aid Bulletin Board.
