SCOTT MOOT COURT HONORS BOARD

The Scott Moot Court Honors Board is an on-campus, student-run honors program named after the late Joseph Scott, the second Dean of Loyola Law School. Many students compete in the annual Scott Moot Court Competition and the top 18 competitors are invited to join the honors program. During the academic year, the student members conduct research, write appellate briefs and argue appeals in intramural and intermural moot court competitions. Selected members become "justices" who host the Scott Moot Court Competition or compete on the National, Jessup and American Bar Association teams. The graduating Scott Moot Court Justices are:

Brett William Wolff, Chief Justice

Roger Willner Backlar, Associate Justice

Marcelo A. Dieguez, Associate Justice

Claudia Gutierrez, Associate Justice

Erica Denise Jones, Associate Justice

BYRNE TRIAL ADVOCACY TEAM

The Byrne Trial Advocacy Team is ranked among the top trial advocacy programs in the United States. This past fall, Loyola participated in the Tournament of Champions, sponsored by the National Institute of Trial Advocacy; the team was named "National Champion" and received the "Best Oral Advocate" award. Loyola won a second national championship in the William Daniels Mock Trial Invitational, sponsored by the State Bar of Georgia Younger Lawyers Division. This spring, a team from Loyola received recognition as a regional champion and regional finalist for the National Trial Competition, and as regional semi-finalist in the National Student Trial Competition sponsored by the American Trial Lawyers Association (ATLA). Each year, team members develop advocacy skills by conducting criminal and civil jury trials including opening statements, direct and cross examination and closing arguments. This year's graduating advocates are:

Andrew Allan Higgs, National Champion - 2001 Tournament of Champions, Regional Champion - 2001 National Trial Competition

Alison Katherine Hazan, *National Champion - 2001 Tournament of Champions, t he business of law is to make sense of the confusion of what we call human life

— to reduce it to order; but at the same time to give it possibility, scope, even dignity.

-Archibald MacLeish
