THE LOYOLA BRIEF

LOYOLA SCHOOL OF LAW · LOS ANGELES

November 1970

STUDENT FACULTY RELATIONS COMMITTEE DISCUSSES KEY ISSUES

On November 11, the Student Faculty Relations Committee met to discuss current policies and problems facing the school. The predominant subject of that meeting seemed to be student criticism of the faculty. Complaints concerning teachers who miss classes, teachers who change exam schedules, lack of action from the Dean's office in the sensitive area of faculty evaluation, and other issues were raised. Further discussion of these problems will be heard at the next meeting scheduled for November 25, 1970 at 5:00 P.M., in the Moot Court Room.

Other points of interest included:

- The availability of rooms D and E for weekend seminar used by students
- The extension of Sunday library hours from 11:00 A.M., to 11:00 P.M.
- An investigation to be conducted which may provide more electrical outlets for typewriters in the library.
- Bill Harlow's appearance on behalf of the SBA parking committee, in which he solicited suggestions concerning the possible use of decals and a student policing system.
- Bill's further request that faculty members allow a few minutes time before class to up-date students on campus events.
- Dean Cavanaugh's investigation into the possibility of two sessions of criminal procedure in the Spring.

Any questions regarding the meeting should be directed to Jim Doyle, at 256-3639 (Home) or 626-8711 (Work)
