"IN CELEBRATION OF OUR ALUMNI"

Highlighting the Law School's celebration of its alumni at the Alumni Association Dinner on March 20 will be the presentation of the 1997 Distinguished Alumnus Award to Thomas V. Girardi '64. The Dinner will be held at the Beverly Hills Hotel beginning with a no-host cocktail reception at 6 p.m., followed by dinner at 7 p.m. All alumni are encouraged to attend this once-a-year event that brings alumni, faculty, students and community members together.

The underlying theme of the evening - "doing good, ensuring justice" - is exemplified by honoree Tom Girardi. His exciting career is marked by a myriad of California cases that serve the public interest, winning important victories in medical malpractice and environmental protection suits. In addition to being well known and highly regarded as a successful litigator, Girardi is often described as a gentleman lawyer, personifying the "wonderful image of a lawyer" that he is attempting to restore through a foundation he established in his father's name.

The Law School's first Corporate Excellence Award will be presented at the Dinner to Countrywide, popularly known as Countrywide Home Loan. Countrywide was chosen to receive this award because of its leadership and innovation in the public interest marked by the development of its House America Program. This program was started in 1992 to create an environment of equal opportunity through counseling, education, training and underwriting in making affordable, single-family home loans. The ultimate goal is to positively impact the revitalization of local communities and economies through home ownership.

Three Vachon Service Awards will be presented this year, two to individuals who have, each in their own way, fought the long and seemingly endless battle to ensure equal opportunity and consideration for individuals with disabilities or chronic illness - Nicholas DeWitt '79 and Gail C. Kaplan '87. Also receiving a Vachon Service Award is Walter P. Jitner '71 who has quietly gone through his life righting wrongs where he finds them, and providing aid to those who are in need, true to the spirit of Rev. Richard A. Vachon for whom these awards are named.

In conjunction with the Dinner, five alumni will receive Board of Governors Recognition Awards. Instituted this year, these Awards are presented to alumni who, either in their professional or private lives, have made a positive contribution to society, their own community, or the practice of law. The recipients will receive their awards prior to the dinner and be introduced to dinner attendees during the program. The awardees are George R. Barlos '91, recognized for his work with Habitat for Humanity, helping build homes for and with families who need this start on a new life; Charles L. Blek, Jr. '72 who has turned tragedy into advocacy, establishing Orange County Citizens for the Prevention of Gun Violence to bring awareness to the public and local, state and national lawmakers; Richard Honn '78, for his years of work with the

BYOBA NEW DEFINITION FOR LOYOLA ALUMNI

"BYOB" has taken on new meaning at Loyola - "Bring Your Own Business card" is the current call as the Alumni Relations Office organizes regional alumni networking receptions. Generally, these are informal, early evening events to which alumni in a particular geographical area are invited to bring a stack of business cards for exchange. There is no formal program, just an opportunity to do some serious networking and reacquainting. There are plans to expand this program to include practice area groups and/or other interests and your suggestions and input are encouraged.

Invitations to individual events are sent to alumni whose mailing address is in the appropriate geographical area, so please notify the Alumni Relations Office of any changes in your home or business address. If you are interested in attending an event out of your own geographic area, please contact the Alumni Relations Office to request an invitation. All alumni are welcome at any event.

Please contact Karen Parks, Director of Alumni Relations with your questions and suggestions:

AFRICAN-AMERICAN SCHOLARSHIP PLANNED

Alumnus Johnnie Cochran '62 has agreed to Chair a committee to begin raising funds for an African-American Scholarship at the Law School. There currently is no available scholarship specifically for African-American students. Alumni who would like to become involved on the Committee should contact Ken Ott in the Development Office, 213/726-1025.

FELDMAN TO RECEIVE FIRST LOYOLA TRIAL LAWYER AWARD

Larry R. Feldman '69 has been selected by the Board of Governors to be the first recipient of the Alumni Association "Trial Lawyer of the Year" award. The award will be presented to Feldman at a dinner preceding the Scott Moot Court Honors Board Final Round on Thursday, April 3, 1997, at the Law School.

"Larry was chosen for this first award because we believe he exemplifies what Loyola tries to teach: ethical practice that provides clients with thoughtful and intelligent, well-reasoned representation. He enjoys the respect of opposing counsel and judges alike - a perfect role model for today's students," according to David Chodos, Chair of the Special Awards Committee that recommended Feldman's selection.

The Scott Moot Court Final Round following the dinner and award presentation is the culmination of days of elimination rounds. The Final Round will be judged by an impressive panel: the Honorable Diarmuid O'Scannlain, Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, the Honorable George H. King, Federal District Court for the Central District of California, and the Honorable Rosemary Barkett, Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals. Dinner attendees are invited to attend the Final Round.

Feldman, a partner in the law firm Fogel, Feldman, Ostrov, Ringler & Klevens, is a self-described "lawyer's lawyer" according to a profile that appeared in the Los Angeles Times last August. He's the attorney his colleagues turn to when they seek counsel, "...a brilliant lawyer," according to one famous client. Feldman, who is often involved in high profile cases, has a reputation for shunning the media, preferring to argue his cases in court. However, he did seek media attention when he represented the 13-year-old boy who accused singer Michael Jackson of molestation. He took that action to "turn the tide so at least we could have a jury that was open-minded" when he determined that the press was showing "very little interest in" his client, who, according to Feldman "deserved the same respect as Michael Jackson." That suit was settled in favor of Feldman's client.

A past president of the Los Angeles County Bar Association and the Los Angeles Trial Lawyers Association, Feldman is a cum laude graduate of the Law School. He was Editor-in-Chief of the Loyola Law Review and received "Outstanding Student" awards from both Bancroft-Whitney and West Publishing Company, and the Criminal Courts Bar Association Award for "Outstanding Student in Southern California." Taking his law school success to the bar, Feldman received the 1989 "Trial Lawyer of the Year" award from the Los Angeles Trial Lawyers Association. He has been active in numerous trial lawyers organizations and the State and County Bars.

Tickets for the April 3rd dinner are available from the Alumni Relations office. For further information, telephone 213/736-8153 (you may leave a fax number or e-mail address and the Office will forward details to you).

LOYOLA SMALL PRACTICE NETWORKING

The newly formed Loyola Small Practice Network (LSPN) is only a few months old and already has a cache of success stories. Board of Governors member Robert Murray '91, the moving force behind the group, reports that several alliances have already grown out of their meetings and it is "going strong." The LSPN has met twice at the Law School since its inception in October, 1996, with a third meeting scheduled for Thursday, May 22, 1997, a tail-gate party on the Law School garage roof. Meetings are open to all Loyola alumni.

The group meets from 6:00 p.m. to about 9:00 p.m. for an informal dinner and a brief business meeting, with the balance of time spent getting to know about one another's practice and experience. "This kind of networking is very valuable to all of us, from the 'new kid on the block' to the practitioner who's been in business for many years. Each has something to offer the group, and we all need someone to refer business to and to receive referrals from - it works for everyone," according to Murray.

LSPN has undertaken to produce a directory that will list all interested Loyola small firm practitioners and others in related fields (expert witness, alternative dispute resolution, consultants, etc.). Listed individuals will share the expense of producing the directory (anticipated to be $45-50 per listed individual) which will be sent free of charge to all alumni. Target date for publication and mailing is Labor Day, 1997. The group is also seeking organizations or individuals who might be interested in sponsoring the directory. If you would like to participate in the directory, or can sponsor or suggest a sponsor, please indicate your interest on the appropriate section of the PARTICIPATION FORM included in this Newsletter, or call Karen Parks in the Alumni Relations Office: 213/736-1046

LA RAZA NEWS FOR ALUMS

LATINO ALUMNI RALLY FOR SCHOLARSHIP

The goal for the Latino Scholarship Committee is to establish two endowed scholarships for Latin students. The committee, chaired by Andy Camacho, father of a current Loyola student, has been meeting to help define the scholarship administration and plan its fundraising approach. In addition to the scholarship goal, the Committee will plan networking receptions and begin matching alumni with current students for mentoring opportunities.

Latino alumni who would like to become involved with the Committee should contact Ken Ott in the Development Office for details: 213/736-1025.

STUDENTS SEEK MENTORS

Mentors for La Raza students are being sought by the student organization. Students would like to be in contact with individuals who can spend some time answering questions about being in law school, taking the bar, seeking employment and a myriad of other topics specific to their individual situations. It doesn't take a lot of time, but it does take commitment.

If you are interested, we will match you with a student based on shared interests. Please contact the Alumni Relations Office by phone 213/736-8153
fax 213/384-1659
or e-mail: llsgrads@lmu-law.lmu.edu

SPRING FAMILY PICNIC APRIL 5TH ALUMNI INVITED!

Hispanic alumni and their families are invited to join the student La Raza organization for an afternoon of fun, food and festivities on the Loyola Law School campus. This is a great opportunity for alumni to get acquainted with current students and to learn what's going on in the classroom and on the campus today.

The event will be held at 2 p.m. on Saturday, April 5, 1997. There will be carne asada, games, a piñata for the kids, and music. Alumni tickets are $10 for adults, $5 for children and may be obtained by completing and returning the appropriate section of the PARTICIPATION FORM you will find in this Newsletter. Questions? Call Karen Parks in the Alumni Office 213/736-1046.

WOMEN'S ROUNDTABLE OFF TO A ROUSING START

In a recent letter to women alumnae, Associate Dean Laurie Levenson proposed the establishment of a Professional Women's Roundtable to provide support and guidance for current law students through mentoring, discussion groups and the establishment of a scholarship that would address the needs of law students who face both the costs of law school and the financial burden of child care. "Response to this call has been most gratifying; we received over 100 responses almost immediately - and the letters keep coming," reports Karen Parks, Director of Alumni Relations. "These women are very enthusiastic about the project and the prospects for a strong program are great, of benefit not just to the students, but to the alumnae as well. I see a terrific opportunity for some meaningful networking here."

The Inaugural Professional Women's Roundtable will take place on Tuesday, April 15, 1997, at 6:15 p.m. at Dean Levenson's home. Alumnae and students are invited to supper and discussion with alumnae Justice Patti S. Kitching, California Court of Appeal, Second Appellate District, and Judge Soussan G. Bruguera, Los Angeles Municipal Court, Civil Division.

Invitations will be mailed March 15; however, if you want further information about the Roundtable or the event, please contact the Alumni Relations Office by (phone) 213/736-8153; (fax) 213/384-1659; or (e-mail) llsgrads@lmu-law.lmu.edu.

Special Olympics, making sports a truly universal endeavor; Ricardo Torres II '92, who has made legal services available to the working poor and low-income wage earners who are ineligible for public assistance, making justice a truly universal pursuit; Anne Whyte '69, recognized for her long-time dedication to abused and neglected children through volunteer work with Child Advocates, and practice in the dependency court.

The Alumni Dinner Committee promises an evening of fine food, short speeches, cool jazz and a wonderful opportunity to enjoy some time with your fellow alums.

Tickets are $125 per person; $100 for public interest/government; $85 for 1994, 1995, and 1996 grads. Tables of ten may be purchased for $1250 and include a Table Sponsor listing in the program. Firms and individuals are also encouraged to sponsor student seats for the Dinner; those doing so will be listed in the program. Seats are still available and can be reserved and/or purchased via telephone 213/736-8153; fax 213/384-1659; or e-mail llsgrads@lmulaw.lmu.edu.
