DEAN'S DAY/PILF AUCTION SET FOR ALUMNI, STUDENTS, FACULTY & STAFF

Make your reservations now for the Fourth Annual Fall Auction sponsored by the Public Interest Law Foundation because you won't want to miss this. The Auction this year will be held in conjunction with the Law School's Dean's Day, bringing alumni, students, faculty and staff together to have fun and support a worthwhile cause. In addition to the silent and spoken auctions, the festivities will include a barbecue dinner, live entertainment, wine tasting, academic awards ceremonies, raffles, and youth activities. The Auction will have everything from movie scripts to Superbowl tickets up for grabs and the raffle promises to be equally exciting with a Hawaiian vacation just waiting to be won! The 1995 Auction was among the most successful public interest auctions of law schools nationwide and with 10,000 alumni/ae invited to this year's festivities, the 1996 Auction promises to be even bigger and better!

All of the proceeds from the event will provide financial assistance to students serving public interest law projects throughout Los Angeles and the world. Over the past four years, PILF has funded 28 full-time summer fellowships at non-profit legal organizations such as the Women's Advocacy Project, AIDS Project Los Angeles and The Center for Human Rights and Constitutional Law. Aside from the summer grant program, PILF sponsors pro bono programs throughout the year to the surrounding community and keeps students informed about opportunities in public interest law. The student-run organization has been recognized nationwide, receiving numerous awards including the Public Service Awards for 1994 and 1995 from the National Association for Public Interest Law.

The future of PILF depends on the success of the Auction and contributions from Loyola alumni/ae are an essential part of that success. ANY contribution you can make, whether it be in the form of an item, a service, an advertisement in the program, or just your attendance, would mean a great deal to PILF and the organizations PILF serves. To make reservations for the event ($8 for adults; $5 for children under 12), which includes all activities and dinner, you may contact either PILF at 213/736-8116 or the Development Office, Nora Romero at 213/736-8153.

Involvement Opportunities

There are several ways to give back to the Law School, one of the best is by being involved with student activities. Any time or effort you can give to the students is greatly appreciated and with such a wide variety of groups on campus, there is truly something for everyone! Some of the upcoming opportunities include:

 The Environmental Law Society is planning a Career Panel for this spring. Alumni/ae interested in participating in the Panel can contact the Society at 213/736-1116.

The Evening SBA is collecting interview attire for the indigent and homeless in Los Angeles. The group hopes to help these individuals get employment so that they may support themselves and stay off of the streets. If you have clothing to contribute, please call 213/736-1008.

 Trial advocacy and moot court teams are seeking alumni to sit as judges at various times during the year. The input of practicing attorneys and sitting (or retired) judges has contributed to the tremendous success of Loyola's past teams and it is extremely valuable to the students. Interested alums may contact Nora in the Alumni/ae Office at 213/736-8153.

Other opportunities become available throughout the year and alumni/ae are encouraged to keep checking this column for information. You may also contact any of the student organizations directly by dialing one of the extensions listed in the "Directory of Student Organizations" found on Page 7.

Also, check the Calendar on the last page of this Newsletter to see when and where alumni groups of interest to you are meeting. Your involvement with other alumni is an invaluable tool. There are lots of opportunities to socialize and to network - please join in!
