CALIFORNIA SUPREME COURT JUSTICE ALLEN E. BROUSSARD WILL BE COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER at the May graduation ceremonies. Student speaker selection process is being planned...watch here for details. Also, a special graduation party at a country club or hotel is in the works.

NEW BUILDINGS, NEW NAMES, HONOR LOYOLA SUPPORTERS...the North Hall will be named the Hall of the 70s in recognition of more than 400 graduates from that decade who donated more than a quarter of a million dollars for its construction. The courthouse, the middle classroom, is being called Merrifield Hall at the request of Mrs. Liliore Rains, who funded the construction and chose to honor retiring University President Donald Merrifield, S.J. Mrs. Rains is also the principal donor toward library renovation which will be renamed in honor of her late husband, Hon. William M. Rains, Loyola '27. The main building honors Fritz Burns; his foundation was the construction's principal underwriter. The Trustees are also issuing a challenge grant of $250,000 for student scholarships.

CLASS RANKINGS...Dean Siegel reminds students of the regulation stating: "Only day students who complete all first year courses will be included in the class ranking at the end of the first year. All other students will be listed in a separate, alphabetical list."

WRITING COMPETITIONS...Immigration and nationality law sponsored by the American Immigration Lawyers Association. Deadline: March 5. Award: $500. Also, a special franchising law competition is being sponsored by Century 21 Real Estate Corporation. See Lia in the Dean's Office for further details.

SEE SPECIAL SEPARATE EDITION OF SBA BULLETIN THIS WEEK focusing on SBA activities. It's been a busy year thus far...and the best is yet to come!

FINANCIAL AID

CALIFORNIA STATE GRADUATE FELLOWSHIPS -- FIRST YEAR STUDENTS ONLY. Supplements for these and the SAAC forms are now available in the Financial Aid Office. Both, plus an unofficial copy of the LSAT scores, are due February 9 at the College Scholarship Service; Berkeley, California, 94701. These fellowships provide up to $5,500 to be applied to tuition and fees for students attending a CA graduate or professional school full-time and are renewable for up to an additional two years. The total State Graduate Fellows awarded to 14 Loyola students was approximately $70,000. Three years ago only 4 Loyola students had such aid.

SECOND DISBURSEMENT OF NATIONAL DIRECT STUDENT LOANS: students expecting to receive the second half of their NDSL award need: 1.) financial aid transcripts from all postsecondary schools attended for more than a semester filed with the Financial Aid Office before the second check can be disbursed, 2.) May graduates who are NDSL recipients must fill out and return repayment papers sent out mid-December before they can receive their second and final check, and 3.) must return the "Financial Aid Resource Update" which will determine whether any changes in income or resources would invalidate eligibility for NDSL funds for the second semester before checks can be disbursed.

FISL, GSL, LSAAP, CLAS APPLICATION DEADLINE IS FEBRUARY 1!!! All private lender loans must be submitted to the Financial Aid Office by February 1 for certification before being forwarded to a student's lender. This is in keeping with the lender's policy that loan applications be received at least 90 days before the end of a school term.

WIVES OF THE BENCH AND BAR SCHOLARSHIP DEADLINE IS MONDAY, January 16. Black students must submit applications, two letters of recommendation and a sealed and stamped transcript from the Registrar's Office to the Financial Aid Office before 5 p.m. Students will be notified by mail when the committee makes its selection.
