ANNOUNCEMENT FROM DEAN FRAKT

I am pleased to announce that Professor Allan Ides will become Associate Dean of Loyola Law School on July 1, 1984. Professor Ides has unique qualifications for the position of Associate Dean. After an outstanding undergraduate career at UCLA, he received a Master of Communication Arts degree from LMU in 1973 and later pursued postgraduate studies at USC. His law school career at Loyola is highlighted by his excellent academic record and his position as Editor-In-Chief of the Law Review. Among his most distinguished accomplishments during his employment history are his clerkships with both Judge Clement F. Haynsworth, Chief Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals and in 1980 with Justice Byron R. White of the United States Supreme Court. Since beginning his teaching career at Loyola in 1982, Professor Ides has rapidly established himself as a fine classroom teacher, a scholar of promise and an effective, energetic participant in all aspects of law school life. As we welcome Professor Ides to the pivotal role of Associate Dean, we all extend our appreciation to Dan Stewart who has served in that position for the past three years. Dean Stewart will be returning to his first love, full time teaching and scholarship, this fall.

LET A PROFESSOR HAVE THE LAST WORD! This year, a faculty member will be invited to have "The Last Word" at graduation. Nominations for who you think should have this honor are now being accepted. Who do you think can impart the most wisdom in 5 minutes? All 3rd year students, day and night, are urged to nominate their favorite prof until March 8. Selection will be made by an 3rd year student body vote on March 12 and 13.

Nominations must be signed and submitted to Rhonda in the Dean's Office.

I nominate _____ to have "The Last Word."

(Nominations by 3rd yr. students only.)

Student Name (Please print)

HELP REDUCE STRESS - On going, all welcome, Yoga, led by Alima Sherman, counselor, will begin on Wednesday, 2/29, I2-1, 1440 Bldg., Room 107.

SPARTACADE - A gala sports competition open to the entire Loyola community will be held February 27 to March 10 at LMU. All interested students can obtain information and registration sheets outside the SBA door.

INTERESTED IN SOCIAL JUSTICE? Network, a lobbying group affiliated with the Catholic Church, has a position open this summer. Any Loyola Law School student interested in spending two months in Washington and getting first hand experience of the legislative process should apply. An information session will be held Thursday, 2/23 at 2:30 p.m. in the Placement Office.

RESEARCH ASSISTANT POSITION - Immediate need for work study-qualified second or third year student to assist professor with general research, etc., primarily in the field of labor law. Good research skills necessary. Maximum expectation is 10 hours per week, perhaps less. Call Prof. Jennifer Friesen at 736-1088 or leave a message.

STUDENTS ELIGIBLE FOR WORK STUDY: Prof. McDermott is looking for 1 or 2 research assistants (about 5 hours per week) for the remainder of the semester.

GRADUATION!!! Commencement will take place on the Westchester Campus of LMU on Sunday, May 27th at 1:00 p.m. Please let the Registrar's Office know whether you plan to participate (736-1015)

If you are participating you will need to be measured for cap & gown. The cost of the graduation package, shared by the school, is $45.00. Please come by the Registrar's Office for measurement ASAP. Checks should be made out to Loyola Law School.

A list of Dec, May & July graduation candidates will be posted on both Registrar Bulletin boards; please check the list for accuracy, as this list will eventually become the final diploma list.

DO WE HAVE YOUR CORRECT ADDRESS? If not, please stop by the Registrar's Office and update your address. Updated transcripts and grade point averages will be mailed soon.
