UPDATE ON THE LIBRARY...the north section of the second floor has been remodeled and is now temporarily occupied by the Library Technical Processes Staff. The permanent shelves will hold our collections of U.S. and Federal materials. The south section is now under construction. On the first floor, the contractors are installing new shelving. Presently, we are scheduled to commence moving part of the collection down to the first floor on September 17. Seating will be increased. Public Services will also move down in September for a temporary period. This shift will allow the central section of the second floor to be remodeled. Tentatively, the Library should be completely remodeled and ready by the end of October. Thank you for bearing with us during this inconvenient time. Any questions, please see us. The Library Staff.

NEXT THURSDAY

COME CELEBRATE WITH US. Fr. Markey's Golden Anniversary. There will be a wine and cheese reception in the Student Lounge from 4:00 - 6:00 p.m. The following Sunday, September 16, at 10:00 a.m. in the Sacred Heart Chapel at LMU, there will be a Mass for Fr. Markey in celebration of his 50 years in the Jesuit Order.
