GENERAL

EVENING STUDENTS, GRADUATION SPEAKER ANNOUNCEMENT. Deadline for submitting outlines for proposed graduation speeches will be extended to March 31. This date is firm. All graduating evening students who are interested in being the speaker must submit their one-page outlines to Linda Ballard (student lounge box 360 or home address) by then. Failure to meet this extended deadline means that your name cannot be placed on the ballot.

SUMMER SESSION 1985 CLINICS DEADLINE IS APRIL 8 (the published deadline of April 5 is a holiday). Early application is encouraged. Please review the 1984-85 Law School Bulletin for a description of clinical offerings. Additional information is available in the Clinics Office.

JURORS NEEDED NOW!! Be a juror in a simulated trial tried by students in Prof. Natali's Advanced Trial Advocacy class. Actual judges will be presiding in their own courtrooms. Come learn courtroom procedures and listen to live testimony. DATES: March 25, 26, 28. LOCATIONS: Downtown L. A. AND Torrance. TIME: 4:30 - 8:30 P.M. Trial will last only one day. If interested, contact Prof. Natali at 736-1154 or Barbara Ferris at 828-2005.

NEW CLINICAL SPECIAL OPPORTUNITY with the U.S. Attorney's Civil Division. Applications are now being accepted for Summer Session 1985. Submit resume and Clinics application to the Clinics Office. Additional information is available in the "Clinical Specials-Summer" binder in the Clinics Office.

ACADEMIC ANNOUNCEMENT: only those students who have already taken Lawyering Skills will be able to enroll in the Ethics course during the summer; no first or second year evening student nor first year day student will be allowed to enroll. Ethics, Counselling and Negotiation (ECN) must be taken from Fall, 1985 to meet the Ethics/Lawyering Skills requirement necessary for graduation. Lawyering Skills and Ethics will no longer be offered from the Fall on (except as previously arranged.)

TORTS SYMPOSIUM: On Friday, March 29, and Saturday, March 30, the Leonard Cohen Chair in Law and Economics will sponsor a symposium on torts, in Merrifield Hall, chaired by Professor Vogel. On Friday, the session will begin at 2:00 p.m. The formal presentation will be by Professor Judith Lachman of University of Wisconsin on causation in the context of harms from speech. The conference will continue at 9:30 Saturday morning with a presentation by Professor Janet Lindgren of S.U.N.Y. at Buffalo on the overlap between reliance and foreseeability. The second presentation on Saturday morning will be by Professor George Priest of Yale on the history of instrumental and non-instrumental views of tort law. After a break for lunch, the conference will conclude with remarks by Professor Richard Abel of U.C.L.A. on compensation for economic harms. Professors Matthew Spitzer of USC, Gary Schwartz of UCLA, Robert Gordon of Stanford and Kenneth Vogel of Loyola will provide formal comments on these papers. The conference is open to all interested parties for free.

INTERVIEWS FOR PROFESSOR HOBBS' FALL 1985 CRIMINAL TRIAL ADVOCACY course will be held on Wednesdays, March 27, April 3 and April 10, from 2:00 - 5:00 p.m. Course enrollment is by interview only. Please see Carol Ross-Burnett in the Clinics Office to sign up on a first-come, first-served basis. Interviews will be held in Interview Room A of the Career Planning and Placement Center. Prof. Hobbs' fall course is the prerequisite for clinical placements with the Los Angeles District Attorney or City Attorney in the Spring '86 semester. Additional information is available in the Clinics Office.

GET THEM WHILE THEY LAST! Attention all candidates for graduation: The Development Office has a very limited supply of invitations still available on a first-come, first-served basis. Send one to Aunt Sadie in San Francisco or Uncle Homer in Huntington Beach. They're sure to please family and friends and can be yours for only $0.50 each while supply lasts. Place your order now with Shirley Paddit at 736-1045.

THIRD TUITION PAYMENT IS DUE APRIL 2, 1985. An addition $50.00 will be added to each student's account if this tuition payment is received after April 2. We will accept a postmark of April 2. Please note that you may drop your tuition payment in the internal mail slot located at the Message Center on the 2nd floor when Student Accounts Office is closed. Office hours for April 2: 10:30 - 1:00 p.m. & 2:00 - 6:00 p.m.

EVENING SBA ELECTION SIGN-UPS: sign-up the week of March 25 through April 10. Elections will be held from April 15 - 18, from 5:00 - 6:00 p.m.

ATTENTION FIRST YEAR STUDENTS: The International Law Journal needs two word processing operators for the Summer. Free word processing time plus $ in exchange for up to 20 hours per week (flexible). We will train. If you are looking for Summer part-time employment and if you are work study eligible, please stop by the ILJ Office or call Ken O'Rourke at 736-1112.
