BLUEBOOKS MAY BE PICKED UP IN THE FACULTY SUPPORT SERVICES DEPT., Room 319, from 9:00 - 1:00 a.m., Monday - Friday and 4:00 - 5:00 p.m., Monday - Thursday. Evening students: if no one is in the office when you arrive, please call 736-1076 from 9:00 - 5:00 p.m. and arrangements will be made for you to receive your bluebooks.

SUMMER SESSION 1985 CLINICS DEADLINE IS APRIL 8 (the published deadline of April 5 is a holiday). Early application is encouraged. Please review the 1984-85 Law School Bulletin for a description of clinical offerings. Additional information is available in the Clinics Office.

NEW CLINICAL SPECIAL OPPORTUNITY with the U.S. Attorney's Civil Division. Applications are now being accepted for Summer Session 1985. Submit resume and Clinics application to the Clinics Office. Additional information is available in the "Clinical Specials-Summer" binder in the Clinics Office.

ACADEMIC ANNOUNCEMENT: only those students who have already taken Lawyering Skills will be able to enroll in the Ethics course during the summer; no first or second year evening student nor first year day student will be allowed to enroll. Ethics, Counselling and Negotiation (ECN) must be taken from Fall, 1985 to meet the Ethics/Lawyering Skills requirement necessary for graduation. Lawyering Skills and Ethics will no longer be offered from the Fall on (except as previously arranged.)

INTERVIEWS FOR PROFESSOR HOBBS' FALL 1985 CRIMINAL TRIAL ADVOCACY course will be held on Wednesdays, April 3 and April 10, from 2:00 - 5:00 p.m. Course enrollment is by interview only. Please see Carol Ross-Burnett in the Clinics Office to sign up on a first-come, first-served basis. Interviews will be held in Interview Room A of the Career Planning and Placement Center. Prof. Hobbs' fall course is the prerequisite for clinical placements with the Los Angeles District Attorney or City Attorney in the Spring '86 semester. Additional information is available in the Clinics Office.

GET THEM WHILE THEY LAST! Attention all candidates for graduation: The Development Office has a very limited supply of invitations still available on a first-come, first-served basis. Send one to Aunt Sadie in San Francisco or Uncle Homer in Huntington Beach. They're sure to please family and friends and can be yours for only $0.50 each while supply lasts. Place your order now with Shirley Paddit at 736-1045.

ATTENTION FIRST YEAR STUDENTS: The International Law Journal needs two word processing operators for the Summer. Free word processing time plus $ in exchange for up to 20 hours per week (flexible). We will train. If you are looking for Summer part-time employment and if you are work study eligible, please stop by the ILJ Office or call Ken O'Rourke at 736-1112.

GENERAL ELECTION OF DAY DIVISION GRADUATION SPEAKER to be held on Tuesday, April 2, and Wednesday, April 3, 10:00 - 3:30 p.m. Candidates are: Arden Fung, George Liddle, Bruce Perelman and Hans Vans Ligten. Copies of each candidate's speech will be available at the voting table. Be sure to vote.

EVENING SBA OFFICERS ELECTION: Sign up on the SBA door this week if you are interested in running for an elected office for the Evening Student Bar Association.

EXAM CONFLICT POLICY: exams will only be rescheduled for the following reasons: 1.) direct conflict (defined as same day); 2.) religious observance; 3.) serious illness; or 4.) a death in the immediate family. Exam conflicts will be rescheduled to Sunday, May 12. Students should come to the Registrar's Office to see Frank Ryan regarding the need for rescheduling an exam.

VALIDATE STUDENT I.D.s for Spring '85 now in the Registrar's Office.

LAST CHANCE TO BUY OLD LIBRARY FURNITURE: many wooden chairs and large tables left. Charis are $2.00 each; tables are $10.00 each and bookshelves are $15.00 each. Pay in cash or check at Student Accounts Office and show your receipt to any Physical Plant Staff member. All furniture must be picked up from campus not later than 4:00 p.m., Saturday, April 6.

INFORMATIONAL SESSIONS FOR FALL 1985 ON-CAMPUS INTERVIEW PROGRAM will be held by Career Planning & Placement Center for students planning to participate. The two sessions are scheduled for Wednesday, April 10, at noon in Room 3 and at 5:00 p.m. in Room 3. Bill McGeary and Carol Ross-Burnett will share detailed information and answer your questions on the hows, whys and wherefores of the Fall interview program.

1985 CPR LEGAL PROGRAM AWARDS sponsors students writing competition. Articles should be on events or issues in the field of alternative dispute resolution, dispute prevention and litigation management. Student papers should not exceed 40 pages. First Prize: $2,000; Second Prize: $1,000; and Honorable Mentions. Must be original work. See Lia in Dean's Office for more information. Deadline: entries must be received on or before October 15, 1985.

GRADUATING? IN EITHER JUNE OR JULY? Make sure that you are on the list posted on the windows of the Registrar's Office. If we do not hear from you by Tuesday, April 9th, we will assume that you do not plan to graduate this spring or summer.

GRADUATING EVENING STUDENTS: candidates for graduation speaker are Brian Dennis, William Holbrook, Jamie Shawles and a two-person team of Anne Grupmann and Michael Hope. Ballots will be mailed to you in early April. If you don't get a ballot, contact Linda Ballard at 213/860-2646.

PROFESSOR SCHECHTER'S SECURED TRANSACTIONS IN PERSONAL PROPERTY CLASS: Your bluebooks are in the Faculty Support Services Dept., Room 319. (See announcement above). They have been there for some time. Much time and effort was spent in providing helpful comments on each exam so that the feedback could be utilized for bar examination preparation and general understanding. Students should not ignore opportunities from teachers who take their pedagogical duties seriously. Please pick up your exams.

SECOND ANNUAL LOYOLA WOMEN IN LAW & PRACTICE CONFERENCE: Saturday, April 13, from 8:30 - 4:00 p.m. Topic: "Women in the Law: Is It Still a Man's World?" Women's Union members will have a table in the quad from April 1 - 3 and April 8 - 11, 11:00 - 1:00 p.m. and 4:00 - 6:00 p.m., for registration to attend the conference.
