Fall 2017: Our Students' Perspective

As the library begins to fill up with students preparing for finals, we wanted to take a moment to look back upon the Fall Semester from the perspective of our own Library Student Ambassadors. Each of the stories below highlight some of the innovative and engaging programs we offer at the William H. Hannon Library. We hope you enjoy this retrospective! And to all our friends and colleagues, the LMU community, and you, dear readers: we wish you the best this holiday season.

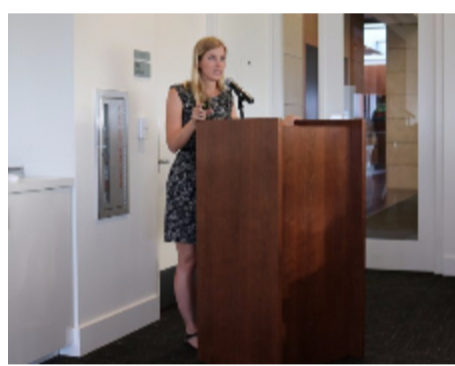

What You Missed

Faculty Pub Night with Kayoko Okada

Our first Faculty Pub Night of the Fall 2017 semester featured Kayoko Okada, Assistant Professor of Psychology, who spoke about her recent project, fMRI studies of American Sign Language. Library student ambassador Jaida Macklin gives us the scoop.

The LMU Human Library

In partnership with the Office for International Students and Scholars as part of WorldFest 2017, we hosted our fifth LMU Human Library. Attendees had the opportunity to speak one-on-one with members of our community about their international experiences and perspectives. Evie Wilson offers us a slice of that experience.
