NATIONAL DIRECT STUDENT LOAN (NDSL) RECIPIENTS

All students who were notified to come to the Financial Aid Office and sign NDSL promissory notes must do so by Tuesday, September 30. Any student who has not complied with this deadline will forfeit their NDSL award for the Fall semester.

LOYOLA REPORTER SEEKS STAFF

The Loyola Reporter (the Law School's monthly campus newspaper) is currently seeking creative and professional individuals to join the staff. Positions are now available to fit individual needs. The editors seek imaginative staff writers, legal writers, photographers, cartoonists, etc. There are no fees or dues to pay. There is no writing competition to gain acceptance and participants are asked to contribute items only when possible. First year students, faculty and members of the administration are always welcome to contribute.

The editors feel this year's newspaper promises to be the best edition in its 10 years of production. "Our goal is to win an award in the A.B.A. law school newspaper competition this spring", says editor Mitch Jackman. "You could be a part of that achievement. REMEMBER--EXPRESSION, COMMUNICATION--THE LOYOLA REPORTER," he adds. For further information, call the office at (213) 736-1115 or leave a message through the internal mail located on the 2nd floor of the Burns Building, c/o The Loyola Reporter.

THE LOYOLA REPORTER STAFF MEETING

There will be a staff meeting at two available times, from 12:00 - 1:00 p.m. and from 4:30 - 5:30 p.m. on Thursday, September 18, 1986 in the Editorial Office in the 1420 W. 9th St. Building. Call or ask Rhonda for Directions. It is the last staff meeting before the Monday September 22nd deadline.

U.S. DEPT. OF JUSTICE APPLICATIONS AVAILABLE

Applications for the U.S. Department of Justice are available in the Career Planning & Placement Center. The deadline for applications is October 3 for Summer, and September 26 for Graduates. The Department of Justice will hold regional interviews at Loyola on Tuesday, November 4, and Wednesday, November 5. Interested students must apply directly to the U.S. Department of Justice.

NOTES FROM THE EVENING S.B.A.

The Evening S.B.A. announces the appointment of John Koslowski as 2nd year representative. He was appointed by President James Thompson on August 27 and confirmed by the S.B.A. officers on September 10.

Congratulations to Adrienne Krikorian on her appointment to Co-chair of the Evening S.B.A. Social Committee.

There will be an Evening S.B.A. meeting on Thursday, September 18 at 5:00 p.m. in classroom 4.

S.B.A. First Year Evening Representative elections will be held this Wednesday, September 17 at 7:30 p.m. in Merrifield Hall.

ATTENTION ALL 3RD & 4TH YEAR EVENING STUDENTS: Please check your mailboxes this week. All students are encouraged to complete the directory information form, including your year and division. Place the form in the drop box located in the mail box area. Forms will be collected this Thursday, September 18.

HUMAN RIGHTS GROUP STARTING AT LOYOLA

Do you want to do something to end torture and executions, free prisoners of conscience and ensure fair trials for all political prisoners? You can do something by helping to start a campus chapter of Amnesty International at Loyola Law School. Amnesty International is an independent, voluntary movement which plays a specific role in the international protection of human rights by focusing on prisoners. For more information call Geoff Chin at (213) 208-0915 or leave a message in student mailbox #549.

FIRST YEAR WOMEN STUDENTS

The women faculty have planned an orientation program for the first year women students. It will be held on Wednesday, September 17 at 5:00 p.m. and then repeated on Wednesday, September 24 at 3:00 p.m. You are invited to attend whichever session is convenient for you. The meeting will help you get acquainted with the women faculty and other women at the law school as well as give you an opportunity to discuss topics of interest in planning both your law school and professional career. Put this on your calendar now and look for more details in future issues of the SBA Bulletin.
