Happenings@Hannon, October 2018

Loyola Marymount University

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.lmu.edu/hannon_newsletter

Recommended Citation
Loyola Marymount University, "Happenings@Hannon, October 2018" (2018). Happenings @ Hannon. 80. https://digitalcommons.lmu.edu/hannon_newsletter/80

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the William H. Hannon Library Publications at Digital Commons @ Loyola Marymount University and Loyola Law School. It has been accepted for inclusion in Happenings @ Hannon by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Loyola Marymount University and Loyola Law School. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@lmu.edu.
Say Goodbye to Overdue Fines

Beginning in Fall 2018 semester, we are able to alter library fines policy to better suit our community-centered approach. What does this mean for you? This is a great step toward helping the library offer resources geared toward the user experience, enhanced services, and a better sense of community. The best part? This is a great way to show the importance of the library to students. It’s a win-win! Rightfully increasing its learning time around the new policy, your library has decided to offer the Royal online login option.

Read More

Library News

University Studies in Italy

This fall, students choose from a variety of Italy-based courses with the goal of enhancing their experiential learning in Italy. LMU Libraries is proud to offer resources and services, such as theJSON Library of Congress, to support students in their endeavors.

See Our Full Calendar of Events

Support Your Library

We support initiatives that enhance academic excellence and educational opportunities. Your donations support the development of new resources and services that benefit our students and the community.

Support the Library

AP Style Manual Online

After 85 years, the AP Style Manual is now available online. This searchable, customizable resource is updated throughout the year and includes Ask the Editor, Topical Guides, and a Pronunciation Guide. The AP Style Manual online is a great tool for writers and editors.

Read More

Upcoming Events

Fall Faculty Pub Night: Cara Anzilotti

October 16, 5:30–7:00p

Aren't you curious to learn about Los Angeles and got away with murder. In 1887, Hattie Woolsteen killed a man in Los Angeles and got away with murder. What is the story of one of Los Angeles' most notorious sinners? Cara Anzilotti, LMU historian, will share her insights on the life and times of Hattie Woolsteen.

MORE INFO AND RSVP

Faculty Pub Night: She-devil in the City of Angels

October 16, 5:30–7:00p

Join us as Cara Anzilotti (LMU Department of History) discusses her research on Los Angeles’ notorious woman: Hattie Woolsteen. Learn about her crime, her trial, and her elusive escape.

MORE INFO AND RSVP

October 20, 2:00–3:30p

Geared toward children ages 6-12, this version of our annual Haunting of Hannon promotes family-friendly fun. Students will have the opportunity to learn about library services, meet with library staff, and explore library spaces. Plus, we’ll have free food, raffle prizes, and therapy dogs.

MORE INFO AND RSVP

October 20, 8:00–10:30p

The theme, Inferno, will bring to life the stories of literature, including: Bunnicula, Dr. Seuss, The Scottish Prisoner, & Scary Stories to Tell in the Dark. The Haunting of Hannon is back for a sixth year in a row. Once again, we are teaming up with LMU Theatre Arts students to haunt the stacks of Hannon Library. This year's event is open to the public and includes the Foley. Typical Gothic, eerie experience at the William H. Hannon Library. Interested in learning more about this new policy?: Hit the “Read More” button below!

READ MORE