Welcome to the Library

To all of our new students and faculty: welcome to the William H. Hannon Library. We hope that this will be a brave space for collaboration, creativity, and intellectual discovery. Our helpful and friendly staff are here to support your academic success. We hope to see you in the library this year! And remember: if you ever need help, ask a librarian.

Touchdown in the Time of Discrimination

Interested in learning about the history of football at Loyola University before the Marymount College affiliation? How about that time when Loyola refused to play a Texas team because they would not allow the players of color to stay in the same hotel as the rest of their teammates? Learn more by stopping by level 1 of the library to see an exhibition curated by Javier Garibay from our University Archives.
