Library News

Blacks of Connection
A multidisciplinary exhibit by Jhayra M. Sancho and Yadvinder Kaur Singh, with works from conference attendees and a panel discussion on the importance of creating and sustaining a welcoming and inclusive Black community at LMU.

Welcome Kelle Rose
Kelle Rose has joined the library! Kelle is the new temporary Reference & Instruction Librarian for Theology. She has worked in various academic libraries across the United States and has experience in areas such as instruction, research assistance, and collection development.

FACULTY PUB NIGHT 2018-2019
We are delighted to announce our speakers for Faculty Pub Night 2018-2019! This is the ninth year of our Pub Night series and we are bringing together faculty from across the University to share their research.

Touchdown in the Time of Discrimination
In this opening event for our Fall 2018 exhibition, “Sincere and Emotional: Stories of Connection.” This event will feature a light reception and a presentation by curator Nina Keen, followed by a panel discussion featuring artists and scholars.
