Upcoming Events

Library News

Inside the Fall 2018 exhibition, "Sincere and Emotional: Stories of Connection." This event will feature non-profit representatives, staff, and attendees. Attendees will learn about how social service, animal, and veterinary organizations are working together to support community members. To learn more about the fall exhibition, please visit the William H. Hannon Library website.

Welcome Kelle Rose

We are delighted to welcome Kelle Rose from our University Archives. Kelle will be the new Reference & Instruction Librarian for Theology. Kelle worked for faith-based nonprofit organizations in Los Angeles and Seattle in community development and social services. She is currently developing the library’s local history collection and will lead the Archival Processing Team.

Touchdown in the Time of Discrimination

In the history of football at any college or university, there are stories that illustrate the impact of social movements on our campus. The William H. Hannon Library is proud to present the Fall 2018 exhibition, "Stories of Connection," exploring how social service, sports, and community organizations are working together to support community members.
