WILLIAM H. HANNON LIBRARY | LOYOLA MARYMOUNT UNIVERSITY

"Working at the William H. Hannon Library provided me with the basic knowledge I needed to jump into my internship." - Ashley Boykins, '19

March 2019 (Volume 9.7)

Library Student Interns at Smithsonian

Ashley Boykins recently spent a summer interning at the Smithsonian's Archives of American Art, helping to organize and house materials from African-American artists, including Jacob Lawrence, Sam Gilliam, Ed Clark, and Senga Nengud. This summer, she will work at the Margaret Herrick Library in Beverly Hills as an Archival Processing Intern for The Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences. We asked Ashley how working at the William H. Hannon Library has prepared her for life and work after graduation.
