We would like to speak with you if you are interested in social and professional events designed to serve everyone. Also, initiation takes place 2 - 3 times during the school year. Don't delay! Join the fun and meet people in the profession. Stop by the P.A.D. office anytime!

JUSTICE NEEDS HELP

Attend the forum for the re-election of the California Supreme Court Justices. The Women's Union is sponsoring a discussion by Allan Ides, Associate Dean & Professor of Law and Mike Schroeder of Crime Victims for Court Reform on Wednesday, October 22 at 2:30 p.m. in Moot Court. FREE!

ATTENTION WOMEN UNION MEMBERS

Notice to Womens Union members, those who wish to be, and THE LOYOLA LAW SCHOOL COMMUNITY: For the next few weeks, the Womens Union will be having a "Save the Independence of the Judiciary" table with buttons and literature regarding the upcoming retention election. Sign-up to work the table when you can. Sign-up sheet is on the office door.

Finally, members should check their mailboxes for information. Reserve Friday evening, October 24 for a social function and short meeting off-campus. Maps are available in the Women's Union office.

URGENT! THE LOYOLA REPORTER NEEDS HELP!

The Reporter is currently in danger of shutting down for a temporary period due to financial problems. We need people to write and/or take care of some of the administrative work in order to re-allocate our time to alleviating the situation. If you enjoyed the first two editions this semester as much as we think you did, then we can assume that you do not want to see this tradition come to an abrupt end. Please contribute if possible. We need you. We can offer you some incentive for your time. Please contact us through internal mail, box 73, or call (213) 736-1115.

REMINDER: There will be a staff meeting Thursday, October 23 at 12:00 noon, and another at 4:30 p.m. Deadline for submissions into The Loyola Reporter has been extended to Tuesday, October 21 at 5:00 p.m.
