Please sign up to bring your favorite dish and pick up a map from the envelope on the office door of the Women's Union. One last opportunity to relax and collect your sanity before the long haul through finals begins. See you there!!

FLOWERS, FLOWERS & MORE FLOWERS: Got a friend to thank for those class notes he gave you when you were sick? Got a special study buddy who's terrific and you want to let her know? What about a general good luck wish to that special person? Or a "great class, prof." message to your favorite teacher who helped make law school a good experience? The Women's Union will be selling color-coded carnations with message cards, Tuesday through Friday of this week. The flowers will be delivered to classes on Tuesday and Wednesday before the Thanksgiving break. Let's all generate some good will on campus and not feed into the finals frenzy! Make a friend's day!

IMMIGRATION TRAINING SESSION: The Simpson-Rodino Immigration Bill recently passed through Congress and has been signed by President Reagan. It will have a broad impact on undocumented workers as well as their employers. IT'S TIME FOR THE NATIONALS!

Superior Courthouse, 111 North Hill Street. There will be two days of competition, Friday November 21 and Saturday November 22. There are two rounds on Friday at 5:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m., and three rounds on Saturday at 10:00 a.m., 2:00 p.m., and 4:00 p.m. On Friday Loyola will argue its first round against McGeorge School of Law and its second round against U.C. Davis. The team needs and appreciates your support. See you there!

BAR PASSAGE RATE EXAMINED

Representatives from the administration (Dean Allan Ides), faculty (T.B.A.) and recent graduates who have passed the Bar will examine Loyola's bar passage statistics, the school's policies and philosophy, and the strengths and weaknesses of our curriculum. Additionally, the Evening SBA will present its proposals for remedial programs which are currently in development. An open question and answer period will follow presentations by participants. The forum will be videotaped and exhibited on campus at various times so as to afford all students an opportunity to view it.
