GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

ATTENTION ALL STUDENTS: WARNING!

Please do not park your car in the Catholic Charities parking lot on the corner of 9th & Albany (on the south side of 9th).

If you do, effective Monday, February 16, Catholic Charities will have no other alternative but to have your car towed away at your expense.

TUITION NOTICE

The second installment of tuition has been extended to February 28th. Advanced students will receive bills prior to this date. First year students will also receive bills instead of coupons.

RED CROSS WANTS YOU

The American Red Cross will be on campus Tuesday, February 17, from 11:00 a.m. - 3:45 p.m. in the Student Lounge for the blood drive. If you wish to donate blood, see or call Rhonda Tartaglio in the information center, 2nd floor Burns building, and she will schedule an appointment for you.
736-1001

GUEST SPEAKER

Marvin Goldberger, Ph.D., President of Cal Tech will be at the law school on Wednesday, February 18th, at 3:00 p.m. in the Moot Courtroom speaking on the relationship of nuclear arms and national security, titled: "Nuclear Weapons: From Hiroshima to Star Wars". Dr. Goldberger is speaking as part of Prof. Karl Manheim's class on arms control, and is a nationally known speaker on the subject of nuclear arms and strategy. For further information, call ext. 1106.

BIBLE STUDY

The Christian Legal Society Bible Study meets every Wednesday from 5:00 - 6:00 p.m. in the Campus Ministry office. Come enjoy the fellowship. Every one is welcome.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

The Black American Law Students Association of Loyola (BALSA) would like to invite the administration, faculty, staff and students to share in the celebration of Black History Month. Please feel free to view the Black History Exhibit on display in the library lobby. The display will remain in the library throughout the month of February. Other Black History Month events include:

Speaker - Kim Crenshaw
U.S.C. Law Professor
Tuesday, Feb. 24 at 5:00 p.m.

Chili Sale
Tuesday, Feb. 17, 11 a.m. - 6 p.m.

For more information about any of the Black History Month events, contact the BALSA Office at x1003.

PROTECT YOURSELF

Increasing levels of violence in our urban environment require everyone to be aware of their surroundings. Women's Law Association presents Almut Poole, who works with assault victims in Los Angeles. Ms. Poole will speak on issues including sexual assault, self defense, and the politics of attack. Women's Law Association invites and encourages students, faculty, and staff of both sexes to attend. Come on Wednesday, February 25 from 4:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. in the Moot Courtroom.

BARRISTERS BALL

Yes, it's almost that time! The Barristers Ball Committee is looking for florists, photographers and a band for this fabulous event. Any interested parties should contact Valerie Mraz (714) 996-6428; or Bobby Grace in the BALSA Office at x1003.

The Barristers Ball is scheduled for Friday, May 22 at the Beverly Hills Hotel. Tickets will go on sale soon.

VITA IS PICKING UP SPEED

There is still time to sign up for VITA (Volunteer Income Tax Assistance). Learn how to prepare state and federal income tax returns for members of the community.

Training sessions will be announced shortly and the project will meet once a week during tax season (March - April) for approximately four weeks.

For more information, contact Mitch Jackman (736-1115) or Prof. Sliskovich (736-1067). The program will be supported by the IRS, Loyola tax professors and the accounting firm of Arthur Andersen & Co.

PHI ALPHA DELTA NEWS

IF THERE'S SNOW, WE GO!
The Loyola and Southwestern Chapters of Phi Alpha Delta are going skiing on Saturday, February 28th in Wrightwood. Call

(213) 422-7953 for information about reservations and prices.

WINTER DINNER

The new California Supreme Court Chief Justice will make his first address in Southern California at the Phi Alpha-Delta Winter Dinner, Thursday, February 19th, at the Wilshire Hyatt Hotel. Call (213) 422-7953 for information about reservations and prices.

BLUEBOOK DISTRIBUTION

NOTE! There is a time change in the distribution of bluebooks. Effective Monday, February 9, students may pick up their bluebooks from Faculty Support Services (third floor, Burns Building) during the following hours:

Monday - Wednesday	11 - 1 & 4 - 5
Thursday	11 - 1 & 4 - 6
Friday	11 - 1

You must present your I.D. card to pick up your bluebook. Come prepared!

FACULTY/STAFF W-4 FORM WORKSHOP

New tax forms for 1987 are here, and are they confusing!

You may be unaware of the new law requiring every employee to refile a W-4 form regardless of your current status. The new form is required by law to be filed no later than October 1, 1987. John Clewis, LMU Director of Personnel Services, will be on hand to lead an in-depth review of the new form and what it means to you. There are two W-4 workshops scheduled for faculty, staff, and administration employed by Loyola Law School on:

Wed. 2/18      3-5 p.m.      Merrifield Hall

Thurs. 2/24      8:30-10:30 a.m. Room 1

SURVEY HELP NEEDED

The Evening SBA needs volunteers to help formulate and evaluate surveys of grads and present students regarding improvement of Loyola's bar passage rate. Persons with experience in research/statistics are asked to contact Lee Auerbach from 10:00 a.m.- 3:00 p.m. at (213) 556-8186, or after 10:00 p.m. at (213) 387-9726

THE LOYOLA REPORTER

REVISED DEADLINE SCHEDULE

Iss. #	Deadline	Publication
No. 6 Spring break edition	Mar 2	Mar 16
No. 7 Special Libel & Slander insert	Mar 20	Apr 1
No. 8 Graduation issue	Apr 17	Apr 30

DON'T DELAY! - SUBMIT EARLY!

Lessons on the school's word processors are available - contact the Loyola Reporter for further information.

The Reporter is still looking for staff members. If you have a few minutes to spare, contact the Reporter. Remember: The special Libel & Slander issue is coming.

JOIN PHI DELTA PHI

If you are in the top third of your class, you are eligible to join Phi Delta Phi -- a national legal honors fraternity. First years are also welcome to participate. Since most of our present members are graduating, there are many opportunities for first and second year students to acquire officer positions and to get the ball rolling for next year.

For more information, contact Lou Kaplan (213) 473-3581 or Jeri Okamoto (213) 736-1125.

L.A. CITY ATTORNEY VISITS LOYOLA LAW SCHOOL!

Los Angeles City Attorney, James Hahn will be speaking at noon on Wednesday, February 18 in the Student Lounge. All students and faculty members are encouraged to attend. His presentation is sponsored by the Loyola Business Law and Litigation Society.

LIBEL & SLANDER

ATTN: STUDENTS, FACULTY & STAFF

Libel and Slander is back on the air! Mark your calendar for show nite: April 4, 1987. Libel & Slander Nite, of course, is the funniest nite of the law school calendar. This year, expect the unexpected as Libel & Slander goes where no law student has gone before -- making Bob Hope and other comedians pale in comparison. Really, this is funny stuff!

ATTN: ACTORS & ACTRESSES

There will be an open call for cast members in late February/early March. Anyone who wants to appear in the show is hereby summoned to watch this paper for exact times and locations. Tryouts will consist of either a performance of outside prepared (your material) or original supplied (our material) material. Keep watching this spot.

ATTN: CREATIVE WRITERS

Libel and Slander is being written now! If you have a finished skit, or if you can finish your great idea, submit it, and your name and phone number to the SBA office by February 25, 1987.

ATTN: MUSICIANS

The Libel and Slander band is now forming! Anyone (and we mean anyone) who plays an instrument is invited to participate. Familiarity with show tunes is a plus. If you want to be a part of the L & S Destroyers (or another suitably silly named band), then submit your name, instrument(s) and phone number to the SBA office.

ATTN: OTHER STUDENTS

Libel and Slander needs your help. We need people to design costumes and sets, do lighting, run video cameras, run a sound system and other "roadie" things. If you're interested, submit your name, interest, skill, and phone number to the SBA office.

STRESS MANAGEMENT SEMINAR

This two-part series will be presented by Grant Abramson and Joan Lightfoot to all students and faculty on Wednesdays, March 18 and March 25 from 3:10 - 5:10 p.m. The workshop will provide a "practical guide to the law student for increasing concentration and retention through the use of self hypnosis and tension reduction. The four hour training will provide discussion and demonstration on topics such as: "Stress vs. Distress", "The Stages and Barriers to Learning Relaxation", and "How to Schedule and Practice Self Hypnosis".

If you will be attending, please leave a message with Stephanie Tainsky at ext. 1122 or through internal mail, by February 26th. follow-up information may be necessary; please include your name, phone number and box number. If you are an interested Evening student and are unable to attend, please notify Ms. Tainsky.

FINANCIAL AID OFFICE*OFFICE RELOCATION

The office is closed today, Monday, February 16. The phone system is down and staff is unavailable to assist students because of the office move to the area previously occupied by the Admissions Office. The office will resume normal business hours on Tuesday, February 17 in its new location.

STUDENT WORKERS

Time sheets are due Tuesday, February 17 no later than 6:00 p.m. Any student who has not completed a new work contract for Spring semester should do so immediately; otherwise the student will not be paid until all the required paperwork is on file in the Financial Aid Office.

'87 - '88 FINANCIAL AID PACKETS

The 1987-1988 financial aid packets are now available in the Financial Aid Office for summer session, State Graduate Fellowship recipients, and current 1st year students applying for the Graduate Fellowship only. For these students the Student Aid Application for California (SAAC) must be mailed to the California Scholarship Service (CSS) in Berkeley, California by Monday, March 2, 1987. All other basic documents, unless otherwise indicated, are due in the Financial Aid Office by Monday, April 20, 1987 no later than 6:00 p.m.
