NEWS FROM CAMPUS MINISTRY

RETREAT OPPORTUNITIES

Campus Ministry at LMU offers a number of retreat opportunities for students. Retreats are days of quiet prayer and reflection directed by members of the Campus Ministry team. The retreats are explicitly Christian and rooted in the Catholic tradition. Christians of other religious traditions, however, are welcome to participate. Retreats begin on Friday evening and end on Sunday afternoon. A retreat for law school students only is planned for the last weekend in January. Further information is posted on the bulletin board outside the Campus Ministry Office.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE CONFERENCE

The National Conference of Christians and Jews is sponsoring a three-day conference on criminal justice entitled: THE NEW DIVERSITY: MANAGING THE DILEMMA - A National Institute on Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice in a Pluralistic Society. The conference will be held from October 28-30 at Kellogg West Conference Center, Pomona. Further information is available in the Campus Ministry Office.

ATTENTION: FIRST YEAR WOMEN!

MEET LOYOLA'S WOMEN FACULTY MEMBERS AND OTHER WOMEN

September 30, 1987
Wednesday
3:30 p.m. and 5:00 p.m.
Student Lounge

Your first year has begun, but you may already have found yourself wondering: Why am I here? What does it mean to be a lawyer? How should I plan my law school (and future) career? How can I resolve career and family conflicts? Where can I find help in law school? How can I keep sane?

At these sessions, Loyola women faculty and women students will talk about these and other issues as they particularly affect women. Following the introductory presentations, there will be a chance for students and faculty to meet and talk informally.

DO PLAN TO COME TO EITHER OR BOTH SESSIONS. GET TO KNOW ONE ANOTHER. SHARE IMPORTANT INFORMATION.

First year men students interested in the women's perspective of these issues are also welcome.

ENTERTAINMENT LAW SOCIETY

Entertainment Law Society will have a general meeting on Monday, September 28 at 12 noon in Classroom 3 of the Burns Building. Professor Sobel will be there to speak on "Methods to Structure Your Academic Curriculums In Order To Practice Entertainment Law". Please bring your lunches. Non-Members are welcome.

Please note that there will be a separate meeting (to be announced) for the evening students who are also interested in the organization.

Should anyone have any questions about the Society, feel free to stop by the Entertainment Law Society Office located on the first floor of the Burns Building, next to the SBA Office.

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL MEETING

Amnesty International is having a meeting on Wednesday, September 23 at 3:00 p.m. in Classroom 3 of the Burns Building. We will be planning this semester's activities. All students, faculty and staff are welcome.

JEWISH LAW STUDENTS ASSOCIATION

All students who plan to take off on Thursday and Friday, September 24 and 25, should see their professors about taping the classes for them. Don't worry - there will definitely be others in your situation.

A Planning Committee Meeting will be held on Tuesday, September 22 at 3:00 p.m. in the JLSA Office.

Happy New Year to You All!
From

Neil J. Sheff, President, JLSA
& The Directors

ST. THOMAS MORE RECEPTION

All students participating in on-campus interviews or interviewing on their own are invited to attend a wine and cheese reception and "Information Exchange" on Wednesday, September 23 from 5:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m. in the Student Lounge (not the Faculty Lounge as indicated in last week's SBA Bulletin).

This reception is co-sponsored by the St. Thomas More Law Honor Society and the Placement Office. You will be an opportunity to obtain information from fellow students who participated in on-campus interviews last year and spent the summer working in various legal settings - law firms, government jobs and non-profit organizations.

ATTENTION - 1987 SUMMER ASSOCIATES & LAW CLERKS

Please attend this "Information Exchange" reception so you can share your experiences of past summer with students who are currently interviewing. We hope to get diverse representation not just from large firms but also from small and medium firms, government and non-profit agencies, e.g. District Attorney's Office, the ACLU, etc. We encourage you to attend.

ANNOUNCEMENT FROM JESSUP MOOT COURT

Jessup Moot Court participants should check their mailboxes for information on tapes, tour and research.

ON-CAMPUS COUNSELING PROGRAM

Stephanie Tainsky and George Muschel, our on-campus counselors, are currently seeing students individually or with their significant others. The law school demands adjustment in roles, responsibilities and expectations.

If you are experiencing problems with family, friends or partners, just dial ext. 1122 and arrange for an appointment. The Counseling Office is located in Room 115, first floor of the library building.

MESSAGE FROM THE MAILROOM

ATTENTION - ALL STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Please pick up your packages and mail from the Mailroom in Room 317 located on the third floor of the Burns Building.

CAREER PLANNING & PLACEMENT

UPCOMING EVENTS

September 22, Tuesday
U.S. Air Force Question & Answer Session
Classroom 6
5:15 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

September 30, Wednesday
Bet Tzedek Information Session
Classroom 1
12:15 p.m. - 1:00 p.m.

GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

DID YOU CLERK THIS SUMMER? Please help us by filling out a "Student Evaluation of Law Clerking Positions" form available in the Cafeteria or Placement Center.

HOURS

The Career Planning and Placement Office is open each Monday, Wednesday and Thursday from 8:45 a.m. - 6:00 p.m.; Tuesday from 8:45 a.m. - 8:00 p.m. Friday's hours have been changed to 10:30 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. (an exception will be made for any 10 a.m. resume deadlines on Fridays only).

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE applications for on-campus interviews are now available in the Placement Office. The deadline for submitting resumes to the Placement Office is Monday, September 21. Resumes must be accompanied by the appropriate application (summer or permanent) and a transcript. The regional interviews will be held off-campus at Whittier Law School on Thursday, November 5.

MINORITY STUDENTS

The Federal Communications Bar Association (FCBA) has established a Minority Recruitment Committee to encourage minority lawyers and law students to enter the telecommunications law practice. As a result, Washington, D. C. law firms, corporations, governmental agencies, trade associations and others involved in the telecommunications industry have pledged good faith efforts to recruit minority law students and lawyers for summer clerkship and permanent positions.

To facilitate recruitment, the Committee has established a resume referral service. The Committee will accept resumes for this service until September 23, 1987. These resumes will then be screened and sent to hiring committees of participating entities. If you are interested, send your resume to:

Maurita K. Coley, Esq.
Cole, Raywid & Braverman
Suite 200
1919 Pennsylvania Ave., N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20006

If you're interested in employment with the Federal Communications Committee, submit a resume, transcript, and writing sample by October 2, 1987 to:

Marjorie S. Reed, Esq.
Associate General Counsel
Federal Communications Commission
1919 M. Street, N.W., Rm. 614
Washington, D.C. 20554

The 1987 NATIONAL BLACK LAW STUDENTS ASSOCIATION'S FARWEST REGIONAL RECRUITING CONFERENCE will take place on Saturday, October 24, 1987 at the Holiday Inn Crowne Plaza, 5985 Century Blvd., Los Angeles. The Conference will provide minority students the opportunity to submit resumes and/or interview with approximately 80 prospective employers. Please contact the Placement Office for further information. OPEN TO ALL MINORITY STUDENTS.

NOTICE REGARDING SUBMISSION OF RESUMES TO FALL OCI EMPLOYERS:

Please be advised that if resumes submitted for the Fall On-Campus Interview Program are found to be in violation of the policies regarding display of grade/rank/G.P.A., students must correct resumes immediately.

In order to submit resumes for remaining employers students must submit corrected resumes to the Career Planning and Placement Center: 10 copies to student file and one to each employer envelope which contains an incorrect resume. Students must notify Center staff when they submit corrected resumes.

Effective Friday, September 11, resumes which do not conform to policy will be pulled and students will be suspended from resume submission until the grade information has been corrected.

If you have any questions regarding this matter please contact the Director or Associate Director.

OCI GENERAL INFORMATION:

There are no interviews on September 24 due to Rosh Hashanah.

Materials are still available for pick-up in the Career Planning and Placement Center. Please read the policies section beginning on Page 5; it contains important information.

Resumes are due at 10 a.m. on each deadline date throughout OCI.

ATTENTION 3RD OR 4TH YEAR EVENING STUDENTS: O'Melveny & Myers has a full-time (30-40 hrs/wk) opening in its Century City office for a 3rd or 4th year evening student in the top 20% of his/her class. Check the Student Listings book in the Placement Office for detailed information.

CORRECTION: The Clinics Office will accept names of students interested in attending the NAPIL Public Interest Law Conference until September 17, not September 30.

FINANCIAL AID

PERKINS LOAN (NDSL) RECIPIENTS

All students who accepted a Perkins Loan (NDSL) as part of their financial aid award must sign a promissory note before any funds can be disbursed. These will be available in the Financial Aid Office on the following dates:

(A-L) September 22
10:30 a.m. - 6:00 p.m.
(M-Z) September 23
10:30 a.m. - 6:00 p.m.

Any student who fails to sign the required promissory note will forfeit his/her Fall NDSL award.

RECONSIDERATION FOR GUARANTEED STUDENT LOAN ELIGIBILITY

One of the most significant changes to the Guaranteed Student Loan Program resulting from the Higher Education Amendments of 1986 is the requirement that all students demonstrate financial need in order to qualify for a Guaranteed Student Loan (GSL). As most GSL applicants are aware, in order to determine GSL eligibility, the Financial Aid Office must use a need analysis system which has been approved by the U.S. Secretary of Education.

The impact of this need analysis system on GSL eligibility has been considerable, especially affecting many of Loyola's single and married independent students who fall within the thirty-five percent (35%) or greater income tax bracket. These students were eligible for GSL's in 1986-1987, but because of the change they are now ineligible this 1987-1988 academic year.

In an attempt to alleviate the hardship this may pose, those students who fall within the above-noted tax bracket may appeal their awards. However, students must realize that the parameters within which the Financial Aid Office can reevaluate are very limited and specific. Therefore, students must be able to demonstrate, within accepted guidelines, that the expected family contribution indicated on their award letters does not accurately account for the expected available cash flow required to contribute to their expected educational expenses. To do this, the student must provide, in writing, the following documentation with an explanation:

- Copies of the student's two most recent family income pay stubs, e.g. student and spouse.

- Verification from employer of all deductions withheld from monthly gross income, if not noted on pay stubs. This must include taxes and insurance premiums.

- Verification of termination of employment, if applicable.

- Official estimates of medical, dental, pharmaceutical, child care, and/or car repair expenses expected to be incurred during the school year. All verification must be furnished by the person providing the services.

Due to the considerable amount of staff resources that will be required to analyze the appeals, it is anticipated that appeals submitted to the Financial Aid Office will take a minimum of 35 working days for review. Students will be notified in writing as to whether or not the new information will affect their GSL eligibility.
