OTHER SPRING OCI INFORMATION:

Students who submitted resumes should now be checking interview lists, posted by social security number on the board outside the Placement Center. Day students are responsible for checking the board; evening students will be called. Students should come into the center to sign-up if their number appears. You must sign-up prior to the posted lottery dates for alternates. If you do not wish to take the interview, simply do not sign up.

48-hour notice is required for cancellation of any interview. Those students who miss interviews without prior notice risk being suspended from the balance of Spring On-Campus Interviews. Procedures for the program are outlined in a memo to all eligible students (first-year day/second-year evening, second-year day/third-year evening, third-year day/fourth-year evening). CHECK YOUR STUDENT MAILBOX FOR THE MEMO.

GUIDE TO LEGAL OPPORTUNITIES IN THE JEWISH COMMUNITY

The 1988 Guide, now available in the Placement Center, informs students about the range of summer and temporary internships available with Jewish organizations and links qualified students with potential employers. Interested students may request it at the front desk.

LOYOLA LAW SCHOOL PUBLIC INTEREST LAW GRANT

Loyola offers a grant program to enable students to engage in employment during the summer which is in the public or community interest. Grants of up to $3,500 per applicant may be awarded in the form of a stipend, tuition credit, or other form necessary to fulfill the purpose of the program. Application forms are available in the Career Planning & Placement Center, and must be completed and returned to Kristin Flierl in that office by April 4, 1988. Please direct any questions about the program to Dean Jan Costello.

BET TZEDEK PUBLIC INTEREST LAW FELLOWSHIP

Bet Tzedek Legal Services, a Los Angeles-based public interest law center, has established a public interest law fellowship program for June 1988 law school graduates. Funding will be for a one-year position, based at the principal San Fernando Valley office (the Valley Rights Project). The Fellow will represent clients in a range of matters including substantial client contact. Applicants must take the California Bar before September 1988. To apply, send a resume and brief (no more than 5 pages) writing sample to: Robin Sommerstein, Director of Personnel, Bet Tzedek Legal Services, 145 S. Fairfax, Ste. 200, Los Angeles, CA 90036.
