GENERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

MESSAGE FROM FACULTY

Professor Donald Brosnan is interviewing for two or more research assistants. If you are interested please apply with resume to Thom Warbeck in the Faculty Support Services in Room #319 of the Burns Building or call him at 736-1108. All applicants must be eligible for financial aid.

Professor Mary-Lynne Fisher's Ethics, Counseling and Negotiation make-up class is scheduled for Wednesday, March 30 from 3:45 - 5:45 p.m. in Classroom 2.

CHRISTIAN LEGAL SOCIETY

The Christian Legal Society's weekly Bible Study meets Tuesdays from 11:30 to 12:30 p.m. in the Campus Ministry Office. All interested students are invited to attend. Feel free to bring your lunch.

In conjunction with the Day SBA, the Christian Legal Society is sponsoring a guest speaker, Dave Kenagy of Thelan, Marrin, Johnson & Bridges to speak on the topic of "Integrating Faith and Practice" on Wednesday, March 30 from 4:45 to 5:45 p.m. in the Moot Court Room. All interested students are invited to attend.

SBA TURF CLUB

Everyone is welcome to join the SBA Turf Club gathering on Wednesday, March 30 from 3:00 - 6:00 p.m. at the lawn area.

P.I.S.C.E.S. MEETING

A meeting of PISCES (the Public Interest Service Community of Enterprising Students) will be held on Tuesday, March 29 at 2:00 p.m. in Classroom 6. The subject matter of the meeting will be fundraising and the upcoming PISCES elections. Anyone interested in joining a student organization which raises money for public law firms is urged to attend.

JEWISH LAW STUDENTS ASSOCIATION NEWS

Once again, during the holiday of Passover, April 2-9, Campus Cuisine will have matzah available for your favorite sandwich.

Nominations are now being accepted for JLSA officers by signing up on the list outside our office. Elections will take place at our upcoming luncheon.

JLSA sent a Loyola delegation to the National Jewish Law Students Conference in Washington, D.C. over winter break. It was the first time Loyola was represented and everyone had a great time.

HAPPY PASSOVER TO STUDENTS AND FACULTY FROM JLSA!

BAR PREP TECHNIQUES

The Italian American Lawyers Association is sponsoring a guest speaker, George Schiavelli, a past bar examiner, to give an insider's perspective on exam taking techniques. This is scheduled for Tuesday, March 29 at 5:00 p.m. in the Student Lounge. Bar Prep classes are not entirely accurate. Clear up any misinformation you may have received.

TIRED OF COMMUTING?

There are lots of innovative ways to improve your commute! To that end, Loyola is investigating a vanpool/ridesharing program to be implemented Fall 1988. To ensure that the program best fits Loyola's needs, a survey of all students, staff and faculty will be conducted in mid-April. It is very important that you respond to the survey so that your traveling patterns and transportation concerns can be understood. Students will receive surveys at their homes, so please give the Registrar's office your current address.

THE NICARAGUAN ISSUE

The President of the Nicaraguan Supreme Court, Dr. Alejandro Serrano Caldera, will speak on campus on Wednesday, March 30 from noon to 1:00 p.m. in the Moot Court Room. His topic will be "Individual Rights and Democracy in Nicaragua." Dr. Serrano is the first President of the Nicaraguan Supreme Court and has been instrumental in shaping the Judicial Branch under Nicaragua's Constitution. He is widely published in the areas of human rights and labor law.

PROPOSITION 68 VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

The Committee on Campaign Finance Reform is seeking volunteers to help in many capacities to campaign for Proposition 68, which would provide needed reform to campaign financing law in California. Volunteers would write press releases, contact voters by telephone, and assist with fund raising. Computer skills would be greatly appreciated. If you are interested, please contact Professor Terry Collingsworth at ext. 1164.

SUMMER/FALL JOBS WITH LEGAL AID

Legal Aid Foundation of Los Angeles has openings this summer for 3 or 4 students to work in the main office near the law school, assisting indigents in connection with public benefit programs: e.g., welfare, social security, etc. Students will have an opportunity to represent clients in administrative hearings, work on class action litigation, as well as engage in legal research. The positions pay in excess of $9 per hour. Students should be willing to continue working on a part-time basis next Fall, and must either be eligible for work study (you can find this out from Financial Aid) or receive a Loyola Public Interest Grant for the summer. If interested, please contact Professor Chris May at ext. 1095 or in Room #122 in the Rains Building.

BOOK SALE

There will be a book sale in the library March 28-31. MANY BARGAINS!

The California Rural Legal Assistance Litigation Unit is accepting applications for student law clerks for summer work-study positions. Applicants must meet the April 30, 1988 deadline. Please see the Financial Aid bulletin board for details.

CAREER PLANNING & PLACEMENT

UPCOMING EVENTS

LEGAL CAREER OPTIONS
WEDNESDAY APRIL 6, 5:30 P.M.,
STUDENT LOUNGE

Alumni speakers return to discuss legal employment options and to evaluate their own professional experiences since graduating from law school. This is a valuable way to make contacts! Alumni from large, medium and small firm settings, government and a sole practitioner are scheduled to participate.

INTERNATIONAL CAREERS
SYMPOSIUM, USC
SATURDAY, APRIL 9

USC School of Law will host the International Careers Symposium for the second consecutive year. The event is open to students from all Southern California ABA law schools. More information will be made available as it is received.

GOVERNMENT CAREERS INFORMATION DAY

SATURDAY, APRIL 16,
10:00 A.M. - 4:00 P.M.

Loyola will host the first annual Government Careers Information Day for ABA Southern California Law Schools on Saturday, April 16. (Government is the second largest employer of law school graduates). Federal, state and local agencies will be on campus to discuss employment opportunities and hiring procedures. A variety of panels will address government law practice in areas such as criminal prosecution and defense, in-house counsel, labor law, and a host of others. Final schedule TBA. Don't miss it! Any student interested in working with Placement Center staff on the day of the program should contact Carol Ross-Burnett at (213) 736-1150 or stop by the Center.

SPRING ON-CAMPUS INTERVIEWS,
MARCH 15-31*CANCELLATIONS:

RODI, POLLOCK, PETTKER, GALBRAITH & PHILLIPS
Interview Date: March 29

OTHER SPRING OCI INFORMATION:

Students who submitted resumes should now be checking interview lists, posted by social security number on the board outside the Placement Center. Day students are responsible for checking the board; evening students will be called. Students should come into the center to sign-up if their number appears. You must sign-up prior to the posted lottery dates for alternates. If you do not wish to take the interview, simply do not sign up.

48-hour notice is required for cancellation of any interview. Those students who miss interviews without prior notice risk being suspended from the balance of Spring On-Campus Interviews. Procedures for the program are outlined in a memo to all eligible students (first-year day/second-year evening, second-year day/third-year evening, third-year day/fourth-year evening). CHECK YOUR STUDENT MAILBOX FOR THE MEMO.

GUIDE TO LEGAL OPPORTUNITIES IN THE JEWISH COMMUNITY

The 1988 Guide, now available in the Placement Center, informs students about the range of summer and temporary internships available with Jewish organizations and links qualified students with potential employers. Interested students may request it at the front desk.

LOYOLA LAW SCHOOL PUBLIC INTEREST LAW GRANT

Loyola offers a grant program to enable students to engage in employment during the summer which is in the public or community interest. Grants of up to $3,500 per applicant may be awarded in the form of a stipend, tuition credit, or other form necessary to fulfill the purpose of the program. Application forms are available in the Career Planning & Placement Center, and must be completed and returned to Kristin Flierl in that office by Monday, April 4. Please direct any questions about the program to Dean Jan Costello.

ATTENTION: STUDENTS APPLYING FOR LOYOLA'S PUBLIC INTEREST GRANT

The Legal Aid Society of Pasadena needs students to work on impact cases dealing with banking and redlining; substandard housing; and development of affordable housing. The contact is:

Mr. Chris Brancart

ANNOUNCEMENTS FROM EVENING SBA

We are pleased to announce that James P. Thompson, President of the Evening SBA and a third-year evening student, has been elected Ninth Circuit Governor of the American Bar Association/Law Student Division. The governing body of the ABA/LSP is comprised of 15 Circuit Governors each with jurisdiction over areas similar to the circuits of the U.S. Court of Appeals. The Circuit Governors represent the law students and schools within the circuit; promote membership in the ABA; and draft, propose and pass upon resolutions from the Law Student Division for submittal to the ABA Assembly.

Elections for SBA Evening Division officers has begun. Sign-up sheets will be posted on the SBA office door beginning this week. All evening students interested in serving as an officer are encouraged to sign up.

Earn $7 per hour by participating in the PHON-A-THON to benefit the Evening Student Scholarship Fund. Watch the bulletin for further details.

FAREWELL TO LEONARD JOHNSON

On behalf of the faculty, administration, staff and students of Loyola Law School, we say thanks and good luck to Leonard Johnson, Loyola's Housekeeping Supervisor. Johnson retires this month after 30 years of service at the school. CONGRATULATIONS!
