Editorial Poem

Summoning the contemplative possibilities of art, this Edition begins. First, a Case Formulation:

One woman struggling with aggression, her therapists Notice how paintings uncover what is Distanced from consciousness, leading to the core.

Exploring anorexia then follows:

De-constructing common theories within our gendered context Informs and repositions women’s art.

Third, Hebrew calligraphy and art therapy Inspire each other, bringing felt gaps Of spiritual and clinical frames - into one.

Not simply product or process; art reflects the spaces between
