December 2016 (Volume 7.4)

A Thank You from Kristine Brancolini, Dean of the Library

Once again this year, our donors came through during the 2016 LMU Day of Giving! Associate Dean Jeff Gatten and I matched every donation over $30 with an additional $10. We had 37 donors exceed this level. A record 60 donors contributed $4,688 to the library on November 17 bringing the month's total to $7,038.

You gave to all of our programs – The Friends of the Library (our general, unrestricted fund), Archives & Special Collections, the Undergraduate Library Research Award, and Library Programming. We have a full program of events coming up this spring and the gifts from our donors will contribute to these programs. This Day of Giving total is a record for the William H. Hannon Library and we sincerely appreciate your generosity!

Upcoming Events @ LMU Library

Feel Good Finals
December 6 - 15

We know finals can be a stressful time for our students. Stop by the library any time between December 6 and December 15 to check out our stress-relieving "maker space," including origami, legos, and coloring books!

Food for Fines
Now through December 16

We are still collecting donations for the Los Angeles Food Bank. In return, we will reduce your library fines $2 for every non-perishable food item. For more information, speak with a staff member at our Circulation Desk.

LMU Speaks
February 15, 2017

Next semester, we are launching a new storytelling program at the library. Four members of the LMU community will be invited to tell a brief, true story about "The Fork in the Road." If you are a fan of The Moth or NPR's StoryCorps, this is for you!

Wikipedia Edit-a-thon
April 7, 2017

Wikipedia is one of the top ten most frequently accessed websites in the world. Did you know that you can contribute to its content? This Spring, we will be working with LMU students to explore how to edit and build content in Wikipedia.
